Introduction

1 Introduction

As the Gamecocks prepare for their 122nd season of intercollegiate football, get an overview of the 2015 football season with the schedule, preseason outlook, rosters, a preseason depth chart, squad breakdown and other notes of interest. For the latest up-to-date information on the Gamecocks, check out the team's official website at www.gamecocksonline.com.

17 Coaching Staff

Head coach Steve Spurrier begins his 11th season in Columbia. While the Head Ball Coach remains the key figure guiding the offense, he is assisted by co-offensive coordinators Shawn Elliott and Steve Spurrier Jr. Jon Hoke is the lone newcomer on the staff. He will share co-defensive coordinator duties with Lorenzo Ward, in what will be a revamped defense.

41 The Gamecocks

South Carolina returns 43 letterwinners from last season's squad, including 13 starters. Four starters return on offense, while eight are back on defense, along with placekicker Elliott Fry. In addition, the Gamecocks welcome their 11th-straight Top-25 recruiting class to Columbia this fall.

77 2014 in Review

South Carolina recorded its school-record 11th-straight season of at least a .500 record in 2014, posting a 7-6 record that included wins over SEC Eastern Division rivals Georgia and Florida, and a season-capping Independence Bowl win over Miami (Fla.).

107 Records

Led by the incomparable George Rogers, the Gamecock record book is dotted with great individual performances. Last season, Dylan Thompson and Pharoh Cooper added their names to the single-season records list, which encompasses an impressive array of players who proudly donned the Garnet & Black.

123 History

In 2014, two-time All-American Jadeveon Clowney became just the second Gamecock selected with the first overall pick in the NFL Draft. One of the greatest players to wear the Garnet & Black, Clowney joined George Rogers as the only Carolina players to earn that distinction.

165 Bowl Games

South Carolina is one of just three Power-5 schools that has celebrated a bowl win in each of the last four seasons, joining Michigan State and Texas A&M. Carolina has defeated traditional powers Nebraska, Michigan, Wisconsin and Miami (Fla.) in its four-year run.

185 Information

South Carolina has a tremendous following, both in the stands and in the press box. Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations Steve Fink and his staff are ready and able to assist you in your coverage of Gamecock Football.

THE HISTORY: 2015 marks the 122nd season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 109th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 583-553-44. The Gamecocks were nine games under .500 until head coach Steve Spurrier took the reins in 2005, but are 39 games over since his arrival.

SEC HISTORY: The 2015 season marks South Carolina's 24th year in the Southeastern Conference. Carolina and Arkansas joined the league prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in 2010. The Gamecocks are 81-102-1 (.442) all-time in SEC regular-season action, but are 26-14 (.650) in conference play since the start of the 2010 season.

2014 IN REVIEW: South Carolina football concluded its 121st season of intercollegiate football in 2014 with a record of 7-6, including a 3-5 mark in the SEC. Five of the 13 games were decided by three points or less, while the difference in seven of the 13 contests was just one score. It marked the seventh-consecutive winning season for the Gamecocks, tying the school record set from 1928-34, and extending their school record to 11-straight seasons with at least a .500 record. The Gamecocks capped the season with a 24-21 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Duck Commander Independence Bowl. It marked the fourth-straight bowl victory for the Gamecocks.

WINS IN THE DECADE: The Carolina 2013 senior class was the winningest class in school history with 42 victories, closely followed by the 2014 class that logged 40 wins. Here are the winningest Division I FBS programs in this decade:

GOOD HOME COOKIN': The Gamecocks are 22-3 in their last 25 games at Williams-Brice Stadium and 38-6 (.864) in their last 44 home games. The Gamecocks had their school-record 18-game home winning streak snapped in the 2014 season opener. The school's previous longest home winning streak was 15 games, set from 1978-80. The only home losses since the start of the 2009 season have come to top-ranked Florida in 2009, to 17th-ranked Arkansas in 2010 and to defending national champion Auburn in 2011 before the 2014 home losses to Texas A&M, Missouri and Tennessee.

HOME CROWD ADVANTAGE: The Gamecocks have played in front of 12 sellouts in their last 14 home contests. The Gamecocks ranked 16th in the nation in home attendance in 2014 with an average of 81,381 per game, including a season-high 84,232 against Georgia, the fifth-largest crowd to attend a game in Columbia. Three of 2014's home crowds figured in the top-30 all-time at Williams-Brice Stadium.

ROAD WARRIORS: South Carolina went 2-3 on the road in 2014, and are 14-8 in their last 22 true road contests. Five of the eight road losses in that stretch came to teams ranked in the top 11 in the country: at No. 8 Arkansas in 2011, at No. 9 LSU and No. 3 Florida in 2012, at No. 11 Georgia in 2013, and at No. 5 Auburn in 2014. They also lost at No. 23 Clemson in 2014.

NON-CONFERENCE WINS: South Carolina has won 19 of its last 20 non-conference games. The Gamecocks had their 18-game non-conference winning streak snapped in the 2014 regular season finale at Clemson. Prior to that loss, Carolina's last non-conference loss came to Florida State in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl. Their four non-conference games for 2015 include dates with North Carolina in Charlotte to open the season, and three home games versus Central Florida, The Citadel and Clemson.

THE BEAT GOES ON: The Gamecocks are coming off their fourth bowl win in as many seasons, something that had never been accomplished previously. Carolina defeated Nebraska, 30-13, in the 2012 Capital One Bowl, slipped past Michigan, 33-28, in the 2013 Outback Bowl, then outscored Wisconsin, 34-24, in the 2014 Capital One Bowl before defeating Miami (Fla.), 24-21, in the Duck Commander Independence Bowl following the 2014 season. The Gamecocks are one of just four FBS schools, joining Michigan State, Texas A&M and Louisiana-Lafayette, to have a bowl victory in each of the last four years. Carolina's overall bowl record stands at 8-12. The Gamecocks dropped their first eight bowl games from 1946-88, but have won eight of the last 12.

THE HEAD BALL COACH: Steve Spurrier begins his 11th season directing the Carolina football program. He has logged a 84-45 mark (.651) in Columbia. The Head Ball Coach is the school's winningest coach and is second in games coached behind Rex Enright (140). Coach Spurrier owns a 226-85-2 mark (.725) in 25 seasons as a college head coach.

STAFF CHANGE: The Gamecocks made one change to their coaching staff during the offseason, hiring Jon Hoke to serve as a co-defensive coordinator along with Lorenzo Ward. Hoke will focus on the passing game, while Ward will concentrate on the running game. Grady Brown moved into a quality control position.

BREAK IT DOWN: The 106-man roster consists of 15 seniors, 32 juniors, 21 sophomores, 11 redshirt freshmen and 27 true freshmen.

THEY'RE BACK: The Gamecocks welcome 43 returning letterwinners to begin the 2015 fall camp. The 43 lettermen consist of 16 offensive players, 24 defensive players and three special teams players. The Gamecocks lost 26 lettermen, including 14 on offense and nine on defense and three special teams performers.

IT'S A NUMBERS GAME: The Gamecocks return 54 percent of their rushing yards, three percent of their passing yards and 47 percent of their receiving yards from a year ago. Eight of the squad's top 10 tacklers return for the 2015 season.

RETURNING STARTERS: The Gamecocks list 13 returning starters from the 2014 squad (four on offense, eight on defense and one specialist). The returning offensive starters are WR Pharoh Cooper, OC Alan Knott, OT Brandon Shell and RG Will Sport. The returning defensive starters include DE Gerald Dixon, DT Gerald Dixon Jr., DE Darius English, SS T.J. Gurley, CB Chris Lammons, FS Chris Moody, LB Skai Moore and LB Jonathan Walton. The returning specialist is PK Elliott Fry.

EVERY TIME OUT: The Gamecocks had five players start every game in 2014. On offense, LT Corey Robinson, LG A.J. Cann, RT Brandon Shell and QB Dylan Thompson made every start. On defense, DB Brison Williams was a starter in each contest. Shell has a streak of 35 consecutive starts made entering the 2015 season.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: The Gamecocks said goodbye to 26 lettermen from last year's roster including 11 starters. The departing starters include TE Rory Anderson, WR Damiere Byrd, TB Mike Davis, OG A.J. Cann, Spur Sharrod Golightly, P Tyler Hull, WR Nick Jones, OT Corey Robinson, DT J.T. Surratt, QB Dylan Thompson and S Brison Williams.

IN THE CLASSROOM: The Gamecocks placed 35 players on the 2014 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll. Among those who made the SEC Honor Roll include returnees Jerell Adams, Landon Ard, Pharoh Cooper, Jordan Diggs, Gerald Dixon Jr., Elliott Fry, Garrison Gist, Kelsey Griffin, Ali Groves, T.J. Gurley, T.J. Holloman, Rico McWilliams, Devin Potter, Jasper Sasser, Brandon Shell, Will Sport, Cody Waldrop and Drew Williams.

TOTING THE SHEEPSKIN: Ten Gamecocks will have earned their degree by the time the 2015 season commences, including: Landon Ard, Cedrick Cooper, Gerald Dixon, Gerald Dixon Jr., Phillip Dukes, Garrison Gist, Isaiah Johnson, Mike Matulis, Brandon Shell and Will Sport.

BIG SPRING: The Gamecocks put up a big number in the classroom this spring, logging a Spring 2015 team GPA of 2.938, the highest on record. Gamecock student-athletes have posted a 3.0 GPA in 17-consecutive semesters.

WHO'S NEXT?: The Gamecocks have had a first-team All-America selection in each of the last six seasons. Eric Norwood (2009) got things started, followed by Alshon Jeffery (2010), Melvin Ingram (2011), Jadeveon Clowney (2012 and 2013), Kelcy Quarles (2013) and A.J. Cann (2014).

STARS TO WATCH: Wide receiver Pharoh Cooper is the most decorated Gamecock returning. Cooper was a first-team All-SEC selection in 2014 by both the AP and Coaches as a wide receiver and earned second-team honors by both groups as an all-purpose performer. Junior Elliott Fry garnered second-team All-SEC accolades by the Coaches, while cornerback Al Harris Jr. was a Freshman All-SEC selection. Senior offensive tackle Brandon Shell, senior tight end Jerell Adams and linebackers Skai Moore and Jonathan Walton should also be candidates for preseason all-conference consideration. Defensive end Marquavius Lewis is the most highly-touted of the January enrollees and could receive that kind of recognition as well.

EARLY ACCOLADES: Wide receiver Pharoh Cooper was a preseason first-team All-SEC selection and a preseason third-team All-American, according to Phil Steele. Offensive tackle Brandon Shell earned a spot on Steele's preseason third-team All-SEC squad, while linebacker Skai Moore was a fourth-team selection. Athlon named Cooper a first-team All-SEC and All-America all-purpose back, while Moore and Elliott Fry earned preseason third-team All-SEC recognition.

PHAROH THE GREAT: Pharoh Cooper exploded on the scene in 2014, leading the team with 69 catches (6th in school history) for 1,136 yards (3rd) and nine receiving touchdowns (t6th). He was second in the SEC in receiving yards per game (87.4) and fourth in receptions per game (5.3). He set the school's single-game record when he logged 233 receiving yards on 11 catches against Tennessee.

JUST FOR KICKS: In 2014, placekicker Elliott Fry led the team in scoring for the second-straight year, tallying 105 points, the third-highest single-season total in school history. He also ranked in the all-time top-5 for field goals made (4th-18), field goals attempted (t3rd-25), PATs made (t2nd-51) and PATs attempted (4th-51) in a season. He connected on the most extra points made without a miss in one season in school history (51), and has hit on a school-record 99 consecutive PATs. After just two seasons, Fry ranks fourth on the Gamecocks' career scoring list with 204 points.

MORE FROM MOORE: Linebacker Skai Moore led the team and ranked 10th in the SEC with 7.8 tackles per game in 2014. His 93 tackles on the season were the most for a Gamecock since Jasper Brinkley logged 107 in 2006. Moore also has seven interceptions in two seasons for the Garnet & Black.

ENROLLING EARLY: The Gamecocks brought in a record number four high school recruits who graduated a semester early and enrolled in time for spring drills in 2015. Here is the list of the 20 Gamecocks who have enrolled early since Coach Spurrier's arrival in Columbia:

2006: Clark Gaston
2007: Stephen Garcia, Travian Robertson
2008: Jay Spearman, C.C. Whitlock, Shaq Wilson
2009: Jarvis Giles, Stephon Gilmore, DeVonte Holloman
2010: Connor Shaw
2011: Martay Mattox
2012: Kelvin Rainey, Brock Stadnik, Clayton Stadnik
2013: Connor Mitch, D.J. Park
2014: None
2015: Jalen Henry, Christian Owens, Sherrod Pittman, Jerad Washington

RECRUITING SUCCESS: The Gamecocks had another successful February signing day. Carolina has put together 11-straight classes that rank among the nation's top-25, according to Rivals. Here are the recent recruiting class rankings according to Rivals and Scout respectively:

2002:	11/18	2009:	12/13
2003:	8/15	2010:	24/34
2004:	35/28	2011:	18/11

2007:	6/7	2014:	16/24
2008:	22/34	2015:	19/20

THIS 'N THAT:

✦ Over last three seasons, only three SEC teams have winning records over teams in the final AP Top 25: South Carolina (10-5), Alabama (9-5) and Georgia (9-8).

✦ Over the past five years, Carolina is 15-5 against their top rivals, going 4-1 versus Clemson, Florida and Georgia, and 3-2 against Tennessee.

✦ Since Steve Spurrier's arrival in Columbia, the Gamecocks are 21-19 against their top four rivals, going 6-4 versus Clemson, and 5-5 against Florida, Georgia and Tennessee. In the 10 years prior to Coach Spurrier's arrival, the Gamecocks were a combined 5-35 against those same four schools, going 3-7 against Georgia, 2-8 versus Clemson, and winless in 10 tries against both Florida and Tennessee.

✦ The Gamecocks scored 424 points in 2014, the second-highest mark in school history, behind only the 443 points scored in 2013.

✦ Carolina set single-season records for both passing yards (3,671) and passing attempts (468) in 2014, surpassing the previous marks of 3,373 yards, set in 1995, and 452 attempts, set in 2008.

After three consecutive 11-win seasons, New Year's Day bowl wins and Top-10 finishes, the South Carolina football team experienced a blip in 2014. The Gamecocks posted a 7-6 record in a campaign in which five games were decided by three points or less and seven came down to just a one-score difference.

As head coach Steve Spurrier begins his 11th season directing the Garnet & Black, the Gamecocks have a renewed drive to get back on top in the SEC East with a goal of playing in Atlanta in December for the SEC title.

But 2015 will have a decidedly different look to it with a lot of fresh faces. Gone are 11 starters and 26 lettermen, including quarterback Dylan Thompson, who set several single-season school records last year including passing yards, All-America offensive guard A.J. Cann, and three other offensive players selected in the NFL Draft, running back Mike Davis, left tackle Corey Robinson and tight end Rory Anderson. Defensively, the biggest losses are defensive tackle J.T. Surratt, Spur Sharrod Golightly and defensive back Brison Williams, all of whom were key contributors to the 11-win seasons. The Gamecocks will also have to replace three-year starting punter Tyler Hull.

With 43 lettermen returning including 13 starters, and a plethora of talented newcomers on the way, several of whom are expected to provide immediate help, especially on the defensive side of the ball, the cupboard is far from bare. In addition, Coach Spurrier has entrusted the defense to longtime NFL assistant coach Jon Hoke. Hoke will conspire with co-defensive coordinator Lorenzo Ward in an effort to reshape and return the Carolina defense into one of the SEC's best.

While this year's squad will begin the year under the radar on the national scene, Coach Spurrier and his staff are anxious to get things started.

As is always the case in the nation's top conference, the road to the SEC Championship is not for the faint of heart. The Gamecocks' schedule is filled with potential land mines, beginning with a neutral site game in Charlotte against North Carolina. The Gamecocks then jump into conference play with a home game against Kentucky before a key road contest at Georgia. Kentucky upset Carolina a year ago, while Georgia is always an early season litmus test. South Carolina will host UCF in a non-conference match, before embarking on six-straight SEC contests. The Gamecocks will travel to Missouri, then host LSU and Vanderbilt before the season's lone off week. Missouri is the two-time defending East champion, while the Gamecocks have defeated LSU just twice in 20 meetings. Carolina will then have revenge on its mind with back-to-back road tilts at Texas A&M and Tennessee, two teams that defeated the Gamecocks last season, before wrapping up the SEC regular season slate at home versus Florida. The final two games are both home contests against instate rivals, first versus The Citadel, then against Clemson in the annual Palmetto Bowl, a game that Carolina has won five of the last six times.

2014 Statistics (SEC/NCAA)

Scoring Offense	32.6 (6/39)
Rushing Offense	161.0 (9/65)
Passing Offense	282.4 (2/20)
Total Offense	443.4 (6/33)

The Carolina offense returns just four starters from a squad that averaged nearly 33 points per game a season ago while setting a school record with 305 first downs. The Gamecocks return 54 percent of their rushing yards, just three percent of their passing yards, and 47 percent of their receiving yards from a year ago. There are plenty of holes to fill, most notably at quarterback and on the left side of the offensive line. Whoever wins the signal-calling duties will have several capable backs to hand the ball off to, led by senior Brandon Wilds and sophomore David Williams. Most of the talk around the Carolina offense revolves around first-team All-SEC performer Pharoh Cooper, the best bet to extend the Gamecocks' streak of a first-team All-American to seven consecutive years. The Gamecock coaches will be looking for different ways to get the ball in Cooper's hands, as he's a difference-maker on the field. Jerell Adams is a big target at tight end, but another wide receiver or two will need to step up to take some of the pressure off Cooper. Fifth-year senior Brandon Shell figures to be the linchpin on the offensive line. He should be healthy after sitting out the spring after undergoing shoulder surgery.

CONNOR MITCH

But Thompson took nearly every meaningful snap during the season, leaving a trio of hungry but largely untested players to battle it out in the spring. Redshirt sophomore Connor Mitch emerged from the spring as the odds-on-favorite to be the starter when the 2015 season opens in Charlotte against North Carolina on September 3. Mitch was highly recruited after throwing for over 12,000 yards in high school in North Carolina, and seemed to have a better grasp of the offense and showed more confidence in the spring. However, the separation between him and junior Perry Orth and redshirt freshman Michael Scarnecchia was not significant entering the summer months, and the battle will continue to be waged when the team begins fall camp in August. Highly touted freshman Lorenzo Nunez will join the mix at that time, and is regarded as more of a dual-threat quarterback. If he is able to gain Coach Spurrier's trust in running the offense quickly, he could force his way into some early playing time. Walk-on Gage Pucci will join the mix in the fall.

QUARTERBACK: Most of the questions regarding the Gamecock offense in 2015 start with the quarterback position. After Connor Shaw, the winningest quarterback in school history departed following the 2013 campaign, many thought the quarterback position would struggle in 2014. All Dylan Thompson did was set a single-season school record for passing yards, while attempting and completing the most passes in school history.

FULLBACK: The Gamecocks may use more of an H-back than a true fullback when they opt into two-back formations this fall. The three fullbacks on the roster are all walk-ons. Garrison Gist is the only returning squadman who mans the position. Newcomer Rivers Bedenbaugh established himself as the top fullback candidate in the spring. Brandon Wilds is also capable of serving as a lead blocker. Max Moorman joined in the summer.

TAILBACK: Despite losing Mike Davis, who finished his career as the ninth-leading rusher in school history despite playing just three seasons, the Gamecocks have a stable of tailbacks capable of producing a solid rushing attack. Brandon Wilds, who has rushed for over 1,200 yards in his career, is back for his final campaign and figures to share most of the carries with sophomore David Williams, who is primed for a breakout season. Both Wilds and Williams play at about 215 pounds, so they are able to take the pounding that the SEC demands. Senior Shon Carson adds another dimension and an experienced third back. True freshmen Mon Denson and A.J. Turner will be given an opportunity in the fall to see if they can crack the rotation. Darius Paulk, Devin Potter, and Rod Talley are all walk-ons who provide quality depth.

WIDE RECEIVER: There isn't a player on the roster considered more of a lock for a starting position in 2015 than junior wide receiver Pharoh Cooper. Cooper earned All-SEC honors last season after catching 69 passes for 1,136 yards and nine scores. The coaching staff will continue to look for ways to get the ball into the versatile Cooper's hands. With defenses more focused on keeping him in check, it will be paramount for another wideout to step up to take the pressure off Cooper. The Gamecocks have been waiting for Shamier Jeffery to become that guy, but the brother of former Gamecock and current NFL standout Alshon Jeffery, is running out of time to tap into that potential and make a name for himself. Jeffery is the only wideout in camp besides Cooper to record a pass reception in a college game. Carlton Heard is another senior who has made his mark on special teams, and now has an opportunity to contribute on the offensive side of the ball. A trio of redshirt freshmen paid their dues on the scout team a year ago and now look for regular work in the rotation. Deebo Samuel stood out the most in the spring and positioned himself as the starter at the 'X' position. At 6-4, Terry Googer is a bigger target and is battling Heard for duty at the 'B' spot. Shaq Davidson is the third of that trio that is looking for an opportunity to showcase his talents. Matrick Belton is another bigger target who worked his way into the conversation after being named the Outstanding Walk-on for the offense in the spring. Sean Odom adds depth. The door is open for a quintet of newcomers, including Jalen Christian, Hayden Hurst, D.J. Neal, Christian Owens and Jerad Washington, to vie for playing time. Owens and Washington got a head start by participating in spring drills.

TIGHT ENDS: The Gamecocks lost an NFL Draft pick in Rory "Busta" Anderson and blocking tight end Cody Gibson, but have capable replacements, led by senior Jerell Adams. At 6-6 and 231 pounds, Adams has the physical attributes to excite the NFL scouts. Kevin "KC" Crosby is not the prototypical tight end at 6-1, 232, but has shown he has the skills to contribute. Walk-on Jacob August has been impressive since his arrival, especially with his ability to catch the ball in traffic. Former starting center Clayton Stadnik lost a significant amount of weight in the offseason and is hoping to fill the blocking tight end role vacated by Gibson. Two true freshmen, Kyle Markway and Connor Redmond, will be added to the mix in the fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE: The Gamecocks lost only two offensive linemen, but they were good ones. Both All-American left guard A.J. Cann and left tackle Corey Robinson were selected in the NFL Draft, and leave a big void on the left side of the line. The Gamecocks have a blend of experience and youth ready to set the tone up front, led by three-year starting tackle Brandon Shell. Shell missed the spring while rehabbing from shoulder surgery, but should be at full strength when fall drills begin. He is penciled in to move from the right tackle position to the left in his final campaign to protect the quarterback's blind side, leaving the right tackle spot in the capable hands of veterans Mike Matulis and Mason Zandi. Matulis is a talented force who has weathered his share of injuries during his Gamecock career. If he can get close to 100 percent physically, it would be a big boost to the line. Zandi is a 6-9, 314-pound junior who has waited patiently for his opportunity. Sophomore Alan Knott made eight starts last season and has continued to improve, earning the Joe Morrison Offensive Player of the Spring honors, locking down the starting center position. Junior Cody Waldrop, who has endured his share of injuries as well, and senior Will Sport are slated to man the left and right guard positions, respectively. D.J. Park and Donell Stanley shared the Everyday Effort Award for the offense in the spring, and received a high number of reps due to the injuries along the front, helping them progress to a point where they will be "game ready" this fall. Junior Brock Stadnik and redshirt freshman Malik Young are also capable of stepping in if called upon. Five newcomers will join the fold this fall, including four true freshmen in Zack Bailey, Blake Camper, Trey Derouen and Christian Pellage. In addition, Wake Forest transfer Cory Helms will be on campus, but the two-year starter for the Demon Deacons will not be eligible this fall due to NCAA transfer rules.

After being a strength for several seasons, the Gamecock defense had a down year in 2014, slipping to the bottom of most categories in the SEC. Jon Hoke was brought in to help rectify the situation in 2015. Eight starters return, but several will be challenged to hold onto their starting berths. The defensive line, which had a difficult time providing any consistent pressure on the quarterback, should be bolstered with an infusion of new talent, led by Marquavius Lewis, Dante Sawyer and Dexter Wideman. The linebacking corps should be a strength, as Skai Moore and Jonathan Walton solidified that group once they were paired in the starting lineup late last season. The young secondary grew up last season as they gained more experience, and should be improved with that year of seasoning under their collective belts.

DEFENSIVE LINE: The Carolina defensive line found out that replacing All-American Jadeveon Clowney was going to much tougher than anyone anticipated. The Gamecocks recorded just 14 sacks as a team last year, one more than Clowney produced by himself in 2012. Most of the key players return up front, and will be bolstered by a bevy of newcomers who could contribute immediately. The competition this fall will be interesting to watch, with no shortage of candidates vying for playing time. Coming out of the spring, Gerald Dixon, Gerald Dixon Jr. and Phillip Dukes, all fifth-year players, along with junior college transfer Marquavius Lewis, are penciled in with the first-team unit. Lewis arrived in the spring and immediately established himself as the squad's top defensive end and an all-star candidate. Defensive ends Cedrick Cooper, Darius English and David Johnson are all experienced and capable of coming off the edge to provide some pressure as well. Kelsey Griffin, Abu Lamin and Taylor Stallworth figure to see plenty of action in the middle of the line, primarily as run stoppers. Dexter Wideman arrived in the spring and could be a key contributor. Joining the corps this fall are a trio of junior college transfers in Devonte Covington, Ulric Jones and Dante Sawyer, along with true freshmen Shameik Blackshear and Quandeski "Boosie" Whitlow.

After playing safety for his first three seasons in the Garnet & Black, senior T.J. Gurley made the transition to Spur in the spring, and is slated to be the starter in the fall, replacing Sharrod Golightly. Little-used Jasper Sasser put together a nice spring after shifting to Spur, collecting a pair of interceptions in the spring game, and pushed his way into the conversation for playing time. 2014 signee Darin Smalls finally made his way to Columbia in the spring, but was limited as he continued to rehab a high school knee injury.

LINEBACKER: The linebacking corps should be a unit of strength this season, led by a pair of returning starters in juniors Skai Moore and Jonathan Walton. The two clicked when they were paired up late in the 2014 season, with Moore leading the team in tackles for the second-straight year. When the Gamecocks line up in the traditional 4-3 set, Moore will play MIKE, with Walton at WILL and junior Larenz Bryant penciled in at SAM. Bryant missed much of the spring with a liver laceration, but will be at full speed in the fall. T.J. Holloman and Bryson Allen-Williams provide solid depth and can produce without losing a beat. Junior college transfer Ernest Hawkins and freshmen Jalen Henry and Sherrod Pittman all were on campus in the spring, although Pittman did not participate in the camp while recovering from a broken leg. Walk-ons Cedrick Malone and Reubyn Walker add depth, while freshman Daniel Fennell will join the cast in the fall.

the key players return. Junior Rico McWilliams and sophomore Chris Lammons are listed atop the depth chart entering the fall. McWilliams looks to be a 100 percent after a knee injury suffered in his freshman season hampered his early development. He was considered the "Most Improved" of the corners in the spring. Lammons started seven games as a true freshman last fall. Al Harris Jr. started the season opener as a true freshman last year and garnered SEC All-Freshman accolades. Jamari Smith returns after missing all of the 2014 campaign with a broken foot. Wesley Green redshirted last season, while walk-ons Shannon James and Demetrius Smalls add depth. Incoming freshmen Rashad Fenton and Octavis Johnson look to make an immediate contribution this fall.

SAFETY: The Gamecocks will look to replace one of the leaders of the defense in Brison Williams, who was used at both safety positions as well as cornerback in 2014, while trying to plug the holes manufactured by youth and inexperience. Returning starter Chris Moody came out of the spring listed as the top free safety, while classmate Jordan Diggs made the transition from Spur to strong safety in the spring, where he earned "Most Improved" accolades and a starting spot entering the fall. Chaz Elder, who has nine career starts, and D.J. Smith provide quality backups, while Ali Groves and Benji Russell add depth. A pair of transfers could figure into the mix immediately. Isaiah Johnson is a fifth-year senior who graduated from Kansas in May. In two seasons for the Jayhawks, he accumulated 148 tackles and six interceptions while starting all 24 games. Toure Boyd has two years of junior college experience under his belt and could work his way into early playing time as well. Freshman Antoine Wilder will also join the squad this fall.

Placekicker Elliott Fry heads the list of the special teams performers. Fry was a second-team All-SEC selection and was a semifinalist for the Groza Award as a sophomore. Former Florida Atlantic standout Sean Kelly joined the team in the spring and is the leading candidate to handle the punting duties this fall. Landon Ard returns for his final season as a kickoff specialist. Drew Williams has handled the deep snapping duties each of the last two years and will add short snapping to his repertoire. Shon Carson (kickoffs) and Pharoh Cooper (punts) are back as the kick returners.

PLACEKICKER: The Gamecocks will put their placekicking duties in the capable hands (and foot) of junior Elliott Fry. Fry has been one of the most consistent kickers in Gamecock history, and is already fourth on the school's all-time list for points scored in a career with 204. Fry was a second-team All-SEC performer a year ago and a semifinalist for the Groza Award. With a 77 percent accuracy rate, that increases to 91 percent when attempting from under 40 yards, Fry has worked to increase his range. He showed that effort is paying off, as he connected on a 48-yarder in the Garnet & Black Spring Game, which would stand as the longest of his career. Should something unexpected happen to Fry, senior Landon Ard is a capable backup. Ard also has handled the kickoff duties. Newcomers Joseph Charlton and Michael Almond could challenge Ard for that specialty role.

ELLIOTT FRY

PUNTER: Carolina will need to replace three-year starter Tyler Hull. While Hull was not known for his distance, he was always able to get the punt off and had a respectable net average. Transfer Sean Kelly was the only punter on campus in the spring. He averaged over 41 yards per punt in two seasons with Florida Atlantic, including 33 that traveled at least 50 yards. He will be challenged by freshmen Joseph Charlton and Michael Almond. Charlton is a rare specialists to come to Carolina with a scholarship already in hand.

LONG SNAPPER: Drew Williams has handled the long snapping duties in each of the past two seasons and figures to do so again in 2015. However, this season, he will be trusted with the additional duties of the short snapper on placements, replacing Ryland Culbertson. Nick McGriff will no longer work as a reserve tight end and instead focus on deep snapping. He will compete with fellow walk-on Jakob Huechtker for the No. 2 role.

HOLDER: The Gamecocks will need to replace Patrick Fish, who was considered by Coach Spurrier as the best holder in the country. Sean Kelly came out of the spring as the leading candidate to replace Fish for this overlooked position. Landon Ard will also be given a look.

KICK RETURNER: Shon Carson has returned 39 kickoffs over the last two years, posting a career average of 20.0 yards per return. Deebo Samuel got a long look in the spring and is listed even on the pre-fall depth chart along with Carson. Other candidates could emerge when fall camp opens.

PUNT RETURNER: Pharoh Cooper has returned 24 punts over the past two seasons and is the odds on favorite to handle those duties again this fall, although his workload on offense may play a role in how often he is used as a returner. He is capable of making a big play with the ball in his hands. Chris Lammons also was used in this role in the spring, but like kick returner, other candidates could emerge when fall camp opens.

Steve Spurrier, who has coached over 400 games, a national championship team, won seven conference titles, garnered nine conference Coach of the Year awards, and won over 72 percent of the college games in which he has coached, begins his 11th season as head coach at the University of South Carolina. Coach Spurrier was introduced as Carolina's 32nd head coach on Nov. 23, 2004.

Coach Spurrier has compiled a 226-85-2 (.725) won-loss record in 25 seasons as a major college head coach, including an 84-45 mark (.651) at Carolina. He became the 71st collegiate coach (all divisions) and the 22nd in Division I to record 200 career victories when he defeated UAB on Sept. 15, 2012 and logged his 250th all-time coaching win (including his stints in the pros) against Georgia in 2012.

Coach Spurrier surpassed Rex Enright's school record for wins when he logged number 65 at Clemson in the 2012 season finale. In doing so, he joined the great Bear Bryant as the only coaches to boast the most coaching victories at two different SEC schools.

He led Duke to the 1989 Atlantic Coast Conference championship before returning to his alma mater, the University of Florida, as head coach in 1990. During his 12 seasons with the Gators, Spurrier's teams won six Southeastern Conference championships, one national title and finished ranked in the nation's top 10 nine times. His record at Florida was an amazing 122-27-1 (.817). Spurrier, who won the 1966 Heisman Trophy as a quarterback for the Gators, was also head coach of the NFL's Washington Redskins. He returned to the college ranks in 2005 after a one-year absence from the sidelines.

In his first season at South Carolina, Coach Spurrier led the Gamecocks to a 7-5 record and a second-place finish in the SEC Eastern Division. In doing so, he posted a five-game winning streak, the 15th-consecutive year in which he has had a five-game winning streak, something no other coach in college history has accomplished. He was honored as the SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press after leading the Gamecocks to a school-record five straight SEC wins, their first win ever at Tennessee and their first win over Florida since the 1930s.

He came back with an 8-5 record in 2006, just the ninth time in school history that the Gamecocks posted eight or more wins in a season. The season was capped with a Liberty Bowl win over C-USA champion Houston.

In his third season with the Garnet & Black, Spurrier's squad raced out to a 6-1 record and moved as high as No. 6 in the BCS rankings, before finishing the campaign with a 6-6 record. With 21 wins, he set the Carolina record for coaching victories after three seasons at the helm.

With a 7-6 record in 2008, Carolina returned to a New Year's Day bowl game for the first time since the 2001 season. The Gamecocks followed that up with another 7-6 record in 2009, their sixth-consecutive non-losing season, the longest stretch in school history since 1928-34. The 2009 season included a win over No. 4 Ole Miss, only the second time in school history that Carolina had defeated a top-five team.

His 2010 Gamecock squad posted several milestones en route to a 9-5 season, the biggest of which was the school's first SEC Eastern Division title and first appearance in the SEC Championship. The Gamecocks also defeated the nation's No. 1 team, Alabama, for the first time in school history, and finished the season ranked 22nd in both major national polls. He was named SEC Coach of the Year for the seventh time, his ninth overall Coach of the Year honor.

The Gamecocks continued to make history in 2011, winning a school-record 11 games and finishing in the top-10 in the final A.P. poll for the first time. The squad also won a school-record six SEC games and defeated each of their Eastern Division rivals in the same season for the first time. Carolina capped the regular season with a win over Clemson, its third-straight over its Palmetto State rival, the first time that has been accomplished since 1968-70, then defeated Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl by a convincing 30-13 margin.

The 2012 season was another success, as the Gamecocks rolled up 11 wins for the second-straight season and logged double-digits in wins for just the third time in school history, capped off by a 33-28 win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl. They defeated four teams that finished among the nation's top 25 in Georgia, Clemson, Vanderbilt and Michigan. The Gamecocks defeated in-state rival Clemson for a fourth-straight year, the first time that had been accomplished since the 1950s. It's No. 8/7 final ranking was the best in school history at that time.

The success continued in 2013. Carolina posted its third-straight 11-2 campaign, finishing fourth in both major polls, the highest national finish in school history. The team defeated five teams that finished in the Top-25, including three in the Top-10. It also defeated six teams that won their bowl games, including two BCS winners. The Gamecocks won their final six games of the season, including a school-record fifth-straight win over Clemson, and a Capital One Bowl win over Wisconsin, the third-straight New Year's Day bowl win.

In 2014, the Head Ball Coach logged his 400th career game as a head coach, including stints with Tampa Bay in the USFL, Duke, Florida, Washington in the NFL and South Carolina. He also led the Gamecocks to a school-record fourth-consecutive bowl victory with a win over Miami in the Duck Commander Independence Bowl.

He became the fourth coach to record 100 or more wins as an SEC coach against SEC competition (he also has three wins against SEC teams while coaching at Duke). Only Paul "Bear" Bryant (159) has won more SEC conference games than Coach Spurrier's 131. Spurrier passed John Vaught (106) and Vince Dooley (105) during the 2010 campaign.

TOTALS	226-85-2

◆ Recipient of the 1966 Heisman Trophy.

◆ Two-time All-American at Florida.

◆ Inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame as a player in 1986.

◆ Is the winningest coach at two SEC schools (Florida and South Carolina), joining Paul "Bear" Bryant (Kentucky and Alabama) as the only coaches with that distinction.

◆ Became the first person to have both won a Heisman Trophy and to have coached a Heisman Trophy winner (Danny Wuerffel).

◆ In 2006, he was one of the first four inductees into the Gator Ring of Honor alongside Danny Wuerffel, Emmitt Smith and Jack Youngblood.

◆ In 2011, he was one of three Heisman Trophy winners at Florida to have a statue erected in his honor.

◆ On May 30, 2013, he was recognized by Governor Rick Scott as part of the 2013 class of Great Floridians, a prestigious group of men and women who have made significant contributions to the progress and prosperity of Florida.

◆ Has been a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award four times (1990, 1991, 1995, 1996).

◆ Has been named his conference's Coach of the Year nine times (1988 and 1989 in the ACC with Duke, in 1990, 1991, 1994, 1995 and 1996 in the SEC with Florida and in 2005 and 2010 in the SEC with South Carolina).

◆ His six outright SEC titles ('91, '93, '94, '95, '96, 2000) ranks as the second-best total in SEC history, trailing only Bear Bryant's 11.

◆ Coached Florida to two National Championship Game appearances (1995 and 1996), claiming the 1996 national title.

◆ In his 25 years as a collegiate head coach he led his squad to the best record in the conference standings eight times (Duke in 1989 and Florida in 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1995 1996 and 2000).

◆ Has led teams to 21 bowl games overall and in 20 of his last 21 seasons overall. Of his 21 bowl teams, 14 played in January.

◆ Prior to his arrival in 1990, Florida had never won more than nine games in a season. In 12 years at the helm he led the Gators to nine seasons of 10+ wins.

◆ Prior to his arrival in 2005, South Carolina had never won more than 10 games in a season. In nine years at the helm he has led the Gamecocks to three seasons of 11+ wins.

◆ His UF squads finished in the Top-10 nine times and six times in the final top five. UF's average poll ranking of 6.5 in the decade of the 1990s was second best in the nation.

◆ His South Carolina squads finished in the Top-10 three times, the only Top-10 finishes in school history.

◆ Compiled a 122-27-1 record at Florida from 1990-2001, the most wins for a Gator coach in school history and a winning percentage (.817) that ranked among the top three in SEC history.

◆ His 122 victories at Florida from 1990-2001 rank as the highest win total for a coach in his first 12 years at a school in major college history.

◆ His Gator teams appeared in the weekly polls 202 of a possible 203 weeks, including each of his last 202 consecutive weeks. From 1990-2001, the Gators were ranked number one in the polls 29 times, appeared in the top five for 117 weeks and among the nation's top 10 for 179 weeks.

◆ Won 100 games at Florida in a faster time period (10th season, eighth game) than any major college coach at a school in the 20th century.

◆ Won his 100th game at Florida in just his 120th overall game (100-19-1 record), a total that ranked among the six fewest games to reach that level at a major college school in the 20th century.

◆ One of only five major college coaches in history and only the second in SEC history to lead a school to 100 wins during a decade (102-22-1 from 1990-99).

◆ He and the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant are the only coaches in SEC history to win as many as four straight league championships.

◆ The only coach in SEC history to win eight conference games in a season four straight years.

◆ His 73 league wins in the 1990s represented the most SEC wins during a decade in conference history.

Did You Know...

Steve Spurrier is one of only four coaches to record 100 or more wins as an SEC coach against SEC competition (he also has three wins against SEC teams while coaching at Duke). Only Bear Bryant (159) has won more SEC conference games than Coach Spurrier's 131. Spurrier passed John Vaught (106) and Vince Dooley (105) during the 2010 campaign.

Steve Spurrier's Playing Career

University of Florida Quarterback 1964-66

• Steve Spurrier was a two-time All-America selection, won the 1966 Heisman Trophy and was tabbed as the 1966 SEC Player of the Year.

• Two-time first-team All-American.

• During his three-year playing career, he broke every single-game, single-season and career record in passing and total offense and broke all league passing records.

• Became the first player in the history of the Sugar Bowl to earn MVP honors despite playing for the team that did not win the game after breaking six game records in the Gators' 20-18 loss to Missouri.

• First-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers. Spurrier played 10 years of pro football with the 49ers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He set a 49ers team record with five touchdown passes vs. the Chicago Bears.

• Inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

• Finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1965.

Deke Adams begins his third season with the Garnet & Black. He was named defensive line coach on January 22, 2013.

Under Adams' tutelage, defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles and defensive end Jadeveon Clowney both earned first-team All-SEC accolades by both the Associated Press and by the league's 14 coaches in 2013. In addition, Quarles and Clowney each earned a first-team spot on an All-American team, joining the 1984 duo of Del Wilkes and James Seawright as the only Carolina teammates to earn All-America distinction in the same season. Quarles led the team with 13.5 tackles for loss, including 9.5 sacks.

Adams spent the 2012 season as Larry Fedora's defensive line coach at North Carolina after serving the three previous seasons in the same capacity for Fedora at Southern Miss. In his one-year stint in Chapel Hill, Adams had the opportunity to coach Sylvester Williams, a first-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft.

In his final year in Hattiesburg, Adams, a former Southern Miss letterman, was in charge of a front four that allowed just 112.6 rushing yards per game in 2011, 22nd in the country. Southern Miss won the Conference USA title and went on to a 12-win season after a Hawaii Bowl win over Nevada.

Among the players he mentored at USM were current CFL player Cordarro Law and 2013 NFL draft pick Jamie Collins.

In his first year at Southern Miss, Adams inherited a young, but seasoned and talented group of players that progressively improved as the season continued. The Golden Eagle defense finished the year No. 18 nationally in sacks and No. 24 in tackles for loss. The year prior to his arrival, Southern Miss was No. 93 and No. 68, respectively, in those two defensive categories.

Adams came to Southern Miss after spending the previous year as linebackers coach and coordinator of player development at Louisiana-Monroe. At ULM, he coached current NFL player Cardia Jackson. Prior to his stint at ULM, he worked for two seasons at North Carolina A&T.

During his first season at North Carolina A&T, Adams stepped into the role of defensive coordinator two games into the season on an interim basis. He was given the job on a permanent basis following that first season. He coached the defensive line during his first year in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007.

Adams spent four years (2002-05) at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkansas before his stint at North Carolina A&T. In 2005, he served as Ouachita Baptist's defensive coordinator and was responsible for the defensive line.

Adams began his coaching career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville State. After spending one season at Jacksonville State, he coached at Pearl River Community College, where he first served as the linebackers coach and later was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2001 he became the defensive coordinator and continued his duties as recruiting coordinator.

Adams was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List during his time as a student-athlete and a three-year letterwinner for the Golden Eagle "Nasty Bunch" defense from 1991-94. During his career at linebacker, Adams tallied 76 tackles, 5 tackles for loss, one sack and one interception for 15 yards.

He is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn.

Kirk Botkin begins his fourth year with the Gamecocks. He was tabbed as South Carolina's linebackers and Spurs coach on January 13, 2012.

In 2014, Botkin's linebacking corps was led by sophomore Skai Moore, who paced the team with 93 tackles, the most for a Gamecock since Jasper Brinkley logged 107 in 2006, and the second-straight year he has headed the squad. Three of the top four tacklers on the team, Moore, Jonathan Walton and Sharrod Golightly, worked under Botkin's guidance. The linebackers and Spurs combined to lead the team in sacks while recording five interceptions. Botkin's troops have totaled 14 interceptions over the past two seasons, including seven by Moore.

With a slew of rookie linebackers, Botkin oversaw a group that showed tremendous progress as the 2013 season unfolded. Despite listing just one junior, three sophomores, two redshirt freshmen and three true freshmen among the three-deep at his three positions, the Gamecocks were able to rank in the nation's top-20 in both total defense (19th) and scoring defense (12th). Carolina linebackers picked off nine passes during the season. True freshman linebacker Skai Moore paced the team in tackles with 56 and in interceptions with four, en route to Freshman All-SEC honors. Junior Spur Sharrod Golightly was a second-team All-SEC selection.

In his first season with the Gamecocks, Botkin had a veteran group to work with, as his top five players, linebackers Shaq Wilson, Reginald Bowens, Damario Jeffery and Quin Smith, along with starting Spur DeVonte Holloman, were all seniors in 2012.

Botkin returned to the collegiate coaching ranks after spending the previous two seasons coaching high school football at Texas High School in Texarkana, Texas. He spent the 2008 and '09 seasons coaching the defensive ends and special teams at his alma mater, Arkansas, under Bobby Petrino, including one season alongside Gamecocks' defensive coordinator Lorenzo Ward.

Botkin was the Razorbacks' first All-SEC performer as a tight end in 1992 and '93, and served as a captain during his senior season. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. He was later named to the Razorbacks' All-Decade team for the 1990s after logging 87 career receptions for 819 yards and five touchdowns.

Botkin spent four years in the NFL, including playing for Bill Parcells in New England (1994), Jim Mora in New Orleans (1994-95) and Bill Cowher in Pittsburgh (1996-97). After an injury ended his career, he began his coaching career at his hometown high school of Robert E. Lee High in Baytown, Texas in 1999. In 2000 he worked as a graduate assistant at Rice University in Houston.

From 2001-05, Botkin served as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State University, first as a tight ends/offensive tackles coach, then as an outside linebackers/special teams coach. While at JSU, the squad won the Ohio Valley Conference in 2003 and '04 and coached seven all-conference performers.

Between stints at Jacksonville State and Arkansas, Botkin spent two seasons coaching linebackers and special teams at Louisiana-Monroe. In 2007, he helped the Warhawks record their first non-losing season in 14 years, including a win at Alabama.

Botkin and his wife, the former Rebecca Holloway, have three children, Lane, Ty and Brynn.

Shawn Elliott begins his sixth season in Columbia. The Camden, S.C. native officially joined Coach Spurrier's staff on January 3, 2010. He was given the title of co-offensive coordinator in 2012 after serving as the running game coordinator for the previous two campaigns. He continues to mentor the Gamecocks' offensive line.

The Gamecock offense has continued to thrive since Elliott joined the staff. The 2014 unit scored nearly 33 points per game while racking up over 440 yards of offense per contest. Senior offensive guard A.J. Cann garnered both All-SEC and All-America accolades in the process.

The Gamecocks turned in the school's best season statistically on the offensive side of the ball in 2013, scoring 34.1 points per game while rolling up a school-record 452.3 yards per game. Carolina used a balanced attack, averaging 198.5 yards on the ground and 253.8 through the air. Elliott was blessed with a veteran offensive line in Corey Robinson, A.J. Cann, Ronald Patrick and Brandon Shell, all of whom were starters for at least a second-straight season. Sophomore tailback Mike Davis rushed for 1,183 yards, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history.

In 2012, the Gamecocks finished fifth in the SEC in scoring, averaging 31.5 points per game, while churning out 377 yards of offense per contest, using a balanced attack of rushing (139 ypg) and passing (238 ypg). Senior center T.J. Johnson garnered second-team All-SEC accolades, while tackle Brandon Shell was recognized on the All-Freshman squad.

The Gamecock offense showed tremendous balance in 2011. The squad averaged 192 yards on the ground and 182 yards through the air. Carolina had a 100-yard rusher in eight of the 13 games. Offensive tackle Rokevious Watkins earned All-SEC honors in his final campaign.

The former Appalachian State offensive line coach's first Gamecock squad showed a significant turnaround upon his arrival, especially in the running game, as Carolina averaged 154.4 rushing yards per game to rank eighth in the SEC after finishing last in the league each of the previous three years. His implementation of a new blocking scheme also helped running back Marcus Lattimore set the Carolina freshman record for rushing yards and the all-time single-season touchdown record for the Gamecocks while earning unanimous National Freshman of the Year accolades. Elliott helped convert former walk-on Garrett Chisolm into a second-team All-SEC selection.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Elliott had coached his entire career at Appalachian State, where he helped the Mountaineers to three-straight national championships (2005-07). After earning his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1996, Elliott worked for two seasons as a defensive assistant, then two seasons as the tight ends coach before taking over the offensive line in 2001. Over his final nine seasons as the offensive line coach at Appalachian State, Elliott's players earned All-America distinction on 12 occasions. From 2005-07, he coached three-consecutive SoCon Jacobs Blocking Trophy recipients.

Elliott was the first player in Appalachian State history to appear in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs four separate seasons. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Black and Gold, helping the squad to two Southern Conference titles. He was a co-captain on the Mountaineers' 1995 squad that finished 12-1 while earning all-league distinction as a defensive end. In his four seasons as a player, the Mountaineers posted a combined record of 36-14.

Elliott was one of three Appalachian State coaches to earn the NCAA's Award of Valor for their efforts in rescuing two individuals from a car accident on Oct. 1, 2000.

Elliott is married to the former Summer Scruggs, who was ASU's women's tennis Most Valuable Player in 1998. They have two children, a daughter, Maddyn, and a son, Max.

Long-time NFL assistant coach Jon Hoke officially joined the University of South Carolina football coaching staff on February 9, 2015. Hoke was given the title of co-defensive coordinator, along with Lorenzo Ward, and will oversee the defense, with an emphasis on the secondary and the passing game.

Hoke previously worked for Head Coach Steve Spurrier for three seasons (1999-2001) at the University of Florida as the Gators' defensive coordinator/secondary coach, replacing Bob Stoops. He added the title of assistant head coach in his final two campaigns (2000-01) at Florida. In his final season with the Gators, the Florida defense ranked first in the SEC in total defense, scoring defense, and pass efficiency defense and was second in rushing defense.

A 32-year coaching veteran, Hoke spent the past 13 seasons as an NFL defensive backs coach, first with the Houston Texans (2002-08), then with the Chicago Bears (2009-14). He helped the Bears reach the NFC Championship game in 2010.

Hoke joined the Chicago Bears as defensive backs coach under head coach Lovie Smith in 2009. He was one of two Smith assistants to be retained by new Bears head coach Marc Trestman for the 2013 season. While in Chicago, cornerbacks Tim Jennings and Charles Tillman were named to a total of four Pro Bowls under Hoke's tutelage. From 2009-13, Chicago ranked third in the NFL in interceptions (97), second in interception return yards (1,569) and led the league with 19 interception return touchdowns.

Hoke joined the expansion Houston Texans in 2002 as secondary coach under Dom Capers, and was retained by new head coach Gary Kubiak in 2005. During his time with the Texans, Houston defensive backs accounted for 82.8 percent (72 of 87) of the teams' interceptions, seventh-highest percentage in the NFL during that span and third-highest in the AFC. In 2002, he coached cornerback Aaron Glenn to the Pro Bowl.

Hoke has extensive experience in the collegiate ranks as well. He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Dayton in the fall of 1982. He spent the spring of 1983 as a graduate assistant at North Carolina State before securing his first full time position at Bowling Green in 1983 as the Falcons' secondary/special teams coach. He spent four seasons in Bowling Green before taking a position as the defensive backs/special teams coach at San Diego State from 1987-88. He spent the next five years as the defensive backs coach at Kent State (1989-93), adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season with the Golden Flashes. He mentored the defensive backs at Missouri for five seasons from 1994-98 before joining Coach Spurrier's staff in Gainesville in 1999.

A four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), Hoke garnered all-MAC honors as a defensive back. During his playing career, the Cardinals earned league titles in both 1976 and 1978. He earned a bachelor's degree in 1980, with a double major in physical education and history. Hoke logged a brief stint in the NFL as a player, seeing action in 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980, recording seven tackles.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children: Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly. His younger brother, Brady, is the former head coach at Michigan and coached against the Gamecocks in the 2013 Outback Bowl.

G.A. Mangus begins his seventh season as South Carolina's quarterbacks coach. He added tight ends to his duties in 2014.

In 2014, senior quarterback Dylan Thompson led the SEC and set a school record in yards passing, while throwing for the second-most touchdowns in a single-season in Carolina history. The Gamecocks scored nearly 33 points and gained over 440 yards of offense per game.

In 2013, Mangus mentored senior quarterback Connor Shaw. Shaw set the school record for career wins as a starter and as the all-time leader in completion percentage. He threw 24 touchdowns in his final campaign against just one interception, as Carolina racked up 34 points and a school-record 452 yards of offense per game. Overall, the Gamecocks threw 30 TD passes against just four interceptions in 2013.

Mangus joined the Carolina staff in 2009. In his first season in Columbia he helped Stephen Garcia rank second in the SEC in passing and was third in the league in total offense, behind only Ryan Mallett and Tim Tebow.

His second season saw marked improvement, as Garcia ranked 22nd in the nation in passing efficiency and moved up the Carolina passing charts to third all-time in yards, completions, attempts and touchdowns.

Shaw took over the quarterback duties in 2011 and posted an 8-1 record as the starting signal-caller. The dual-threat QB completed 65.4 percent of his passes with 14 touchdowns and also rushed for over 500 yards with eight scores.

Mangus was responsible for the tutelage of Shaw and Dylan Thompson during the 2012 campaign. The quarterbacks combined to throw 29 touchdown passes while logging just nine interceptions during the season.

Mangus' abilities as a coach spill over into recruiting, as he was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by ESPN, Rivals.com and by 247Sports.com in February 2011, and one of the top 50 recruiters by 247Sports.com in '12 and '13.

Prior to Carolina, he was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Middle Tennessee State for three seasons under former Gamecock coach Rick Stockstill.

Mangus took over the Delaware Valley program in May 2002, went 2-8 in his first season, and turned the team into an NCAA Division III championship contender. In the next three seasons Delaware Valley notched a 33-4 record, won three conference championships, and advanced to the national quarterfinals twice.

In 2003, Mangus directed the Aggies to the fifth-best one-year turnaround in Division III history. They finished 9-2 and captured the Eastern College Athletic Conference Southeast Championship, earning him Coach of the Year honors.

In 2004 and 2005, Mangus led the Aggies to perfect back-to-back regular-season records and the team's first overall Middle Atlantic Conference championship. The 2005 squad also earned a MAC title and advanced to the NCAA playoffs. Delaware Valley hosted and won its first two playoff games each season before falling in the quarterfinals, finishing with 12-1 marks.

Mangus was named the league's 2004 Coach of the Year for the second year in a row and earned the East Region Coach of the Year Award from Don Hansen's Football Gazette. Mangus was voted the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division III Region 2 Coach of the Year. His off-season was capped when he was named the Tri-State Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club.

Mangus was a quarterback at the University of Florida from 1988 to '91, including two years under Steve Spurrier. During that time, he was a member of the school's first SEC championship team in 1991.

Following his graduation in 1992, Mangus remained at Florida for three years, as a graduate assistant and assistant offensive line coach. The Gators won two SEC titles (1993 and '94), reached the championship game in 1992 and made three bowl appearances during that time.

Mangus first full-time position came at Widener. He began as the running backs and quarterbacks coach and was eventually elevated to offensive coordinator. The Pioneers had two eight-win seasons and made two postseason appearances, including a spot in the 1995 Division III playoffs.

Mangus became the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for Ursinus College in June 1999 and joined a program that had gone 3-7 in 1998. The 1999 squad posted a school-record 10 wins, including its first-ever Division III playoff win. The Bears went 8-2 the following year for their first back-to-back winning seasons since 1954.

He and his wife, Lauren, have daughters Grace and Hope.

Joe Robinson begins his fourth year in Columbia. He was hired as the Gamecocks' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach on January 13, 2012 but focused solely on the special teams in 2013 and again in 2014.

Under Robinson's watch, sophomore placekicker Elliott Fry became a semifinalist for the Lou Groza award and was a second-team All-SEC selection, while three-year punter Tyler Hull put together his finest season in 2014. Fry led the team in scoring for the second-straight year, tallying 105 points, the third-highest single-season total in school history.

In 2013, Robinson had a hand in the early success of true freshman placekicker Elliott Fry, who converted 15-of-18 field goal attempts in his first season for the Garnet & Black and set a school record for PAT's in a season with 54. Fry earned Freshman All-SEC accolades, as did Pharoh Cooper as a return specialist.

During Robinson's first season at Carolina, Ace Sanders established a school record for punt return yardage in a season while earning second-team All-America honors and SEC Special Teams Player of the Year accolades. The Gamecock tight ends, led by Justice Cunningham and Rory Anderson, along with SEC All-Freshman Jerell Adams, became a key threat in the passing game. Cunningham was selected with the final pick of the 2013 draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

Robinson, the 2010 FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year, joined the Gamecock staff after one season at the University of North Carolina, where he coached the defensive line.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Robinson spent three seasons as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at LSU. In his award-winning 2010 season, the Tigers' special teams finished in the top 13 nationally in net punting, kickoff return average and punt return average while earning a trip to the Cotton Bowl. In 2009, LSU's special teams combined to rank No. 1 overall in the SEC as the Tigers led the league in both kickoff coverage (44.5 net average) and punt returns (18.9). LSU was the only team in the league to rank among the top three in the conference in four special teams categories. Kick returner Trindon Holliday led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in punt returns and was selected in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Robinson has coached a variety of positions during his coaching career, including defensive line, special teams, linebackers and running backs. He also has experience as a recruiting coordinator at Southern Miss and Louisiana Tech.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Louisiana Tech where he served as a defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1989-91. Robinson then coached seven seasons at Southern Miss where he tutored the defensive line (1992-93), linebackers (1994-95) and special teams (1996-98) while also earning a master's degree. He returned to Louisiana Tech for one year (2001), and also logged stints at Houston (2002) and Central Florida (2003).

Robinson coached defensive ends and special teams for four seasons at Arizona from 2004-07. He coached a number of outstanding special teams performers with the Wildcats, including NFL draft picks Antoine Cason, (1st round by San Diego), Nick Folk (6th round by Dallas) and Syndric Steptoe (7th round by Cleveland). In 2004, Robinson coached on the same Arizona staff as current South Carolina wide receivers coach Steve Spurrier, Jr.

A 1985 graduate of LSU, Robinson's first coaching job came as an assistant at Catholic High School of Pointe Coupee in 1986. He was promoted to head coach in 1987. Robinson spent the 1988 season as the defensive coordinator at Bastrop High School.

Born in Abilene, Texas, Robinson and his wife, Abby, have three daughters, Alexandra, Madeline and Valerie.

Everette Sands begins his fourth season with the Gamecocks. He was named running backs coach at South Carolina on January 16, 2012.

In 2014, a pair of juniors in Mike Davis (982) and Brandon Wilds (570) each rushed for over 500 yards and combined for 13 rushing touchdowns. Davis fell just 18 yards shy of joining Gamecock legend George Rogers as the only backs in school history to rush for multiple 1,000-yard seasons.

During the 2013 season, Sands was able to find a capable replacement for Marcus Lattimore, one of Carolina's all-time greats. Sophomore Mike Davis stepped into the role as the team's top running back and produced a 1,000-yard rushing season, just the 10th in school history. He finished with 1,183 yards, the fourth-highest single-season mark in school history. As a team, Carolina was sixth in the SEC in rushing yards per game at 198.5, with 27 rushing TDs. Davis was recognized by both the Associated Press and the league's 14 coaches as a second-team All-SEC honoree.

In Sands' first season, the Gamecocks rushed for 19 touchdowns and averaged 139 yards on the ground. Carolina lost its top ground-gainer, Marcus Lattimore, to a season-ending knee injury in the ninth game of the season against Tennessee, but senior Kenny Miles and freshman Mike Davis stepped in to pick up the slack in fine fashion.

Sands came to South Carolina after spending the 2011 campaign coaching the running backs at NC State, his 16th year in the profession. In his lone season with the Wolfpack, his backs logged four individual 100+ yard performances for the first time since 2007.

Sands is very familiar with the Palmetto State, having logged two stints at The Citadel, first from 1999-2000 and again from 2005-10. During his second stint at the Charleston school, he coached three running backs who were named to the Southern Conference All-Freshman team and had one back break the school's single-season and single-game records for touchdowns. Between his stints at The Citadel, Sands coached the offensive backs at Ohio University.

Born July 28, 1971 in Conway, S.C., Sands earned a bachelor's degree in computer science from The Citadel in 1993. He earned four letters as a running back for the Bulldogs, collecting All-Southern Conference honors in all four years. He ranks second all-time in school history with 3,926 rushing yards and with 204 points and 34 touchdowns. He garnered All-America accolades as a junior when he led The Citadel to a conference title and number one final ranking with 1,449 yards and 12 touchdowns. He served as a team captain in 1993 and was inducted into The Citadel Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Sands got into the coaching profession originally at the high school level in 1995 when he was at Sea Island Academy in Johns Island, S.C. At that time, he was considered to be the youngest head coach in the history of South Carolina high school football.

His first college coaching position came at Elon from 1996-98.

Sands is married to the former Yvette Newton and the couple has two sons, Everette III "Tre" and Josiah, and one daughter, Sierra.

Steve Spurrier Jr., who has served on the coaching staffs of two national championship teams and tutored a bevy of outstanding receivers at both the collegiate and professional levels, begins his 11th year with the Gamecocks.

Spurrier Jr. was given the additional title of passing game coordinator beginning with the 2009 season and, beginning in the spring of 2011, added the duties of recruiting coordinator to his resume. He was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in the spring of 2012.

In his first season with the Gamecocks in 2005, Spurrier Jr. mentored Sidney Rice, who broke nearly every receiving record at the school en route to Freshman All-America honors. Rice ended the campaign as the school's single-season receiving yards leader after catching 70 passes for 1,143 yards.

In 2006, Spurrier Jr.'s top two receivers, Rice and Kenny McKinley, combined for 123 catches and 1,970 yards receiving, the top tandem marks in school history. Rice owns two of the top four receiving seasons in Carolina history and set several records in just two campaigns in the Garnet & Black.

In 2007, McKinley earned first-team all-league recognition after setting a school record with 77 receptions for 968 yards and nine touchdowns.

His receivers had another strong year in 2008 as McKinley became the school's all-time leading receiver in both receptions (207) and receiving yards (2,781), surpassing the records previously held by Sterling Sharpe. McKinley, who missed part of his senior season with an injury, still managed to haul in 54 passes for 642 yards to lead the team and earn honorable mention all-conference recognition.

In 2009, Spurrier Jr. developed Alshon Jeffery into a consensus first-team Freshman All-American after leading the team in receptions, yards and touchdown catches.

Spurrier Jr. helped guide Jeffery to a school-record season in 2010, as the sophomore amassed over 1,500 receiving yards and nine touchdowns, earning unanimous All-SEC honors, All-America accolades and a nod as a Biletnikoff Award finalist.

Jeffery capped his career with 49 catches for 762 yards in 2011, finishing his three-year stint in the Garnet & Black with school records in receiving yards (3,042) and 100-yard receiving games (12), and tying the school record for touchdown catches with 23.

The Gamecocks used the tight end more in 2012, as Justice Cunningham and Rory Anderson provided a nice balance with wideouts Bruce Ellington and Ace Sanders. That quartet caught 21 of the 29 TD passes.

Led by Ellington, Damiere Byrd, Nick Jones and Shaq Roland, the Gamecocks were fourth in the SEC in pass offense in 2013, while averaging 34.1 points and a school record 452.3 yards of offense per game.

Pharoh Cooper had a breakout season in 2014, becoming the next in what has been an impressive line of receivers at Carolina while earning All-SEC honors.

Spurrier Jr. brought 11 years of coaching experience to Carolina, with his most recent stop being at the University of Arizona under head coach Mike Stoops.

He spent two seasons as wide receivers coach in the NFL with Washington. While with the Redskins, Spurrier Jr. coached Laveranues Coles, whose 2003 receiving totals of 82 receptions for 1,204 yards earned him his only Pro Bowl appearance. He also coached Rod Gardner, who was the Redskins' top receiver in '02 with 1,007 yards.

Spurrier Jr. was part of Bob Stoops' rebuilding project at Oklahoma, which culminated with a perfect 13-0 record and national championship in 2000. He spent three seasons as the Sooners' wide receivers coach, working with such standouts as Mark Clayton and Josh Norman.

Prior to his stay in Norman, Spurrier Jr. worked at Florida for five seasons and was part of the Gators' 1996 national championship club.

During his collegiate coaching career, he has been involved with 14 postseason bowl teams, four conference championships (three SEC and one Big 12) and two national championships (Florida 1996 and Oklahoma 2000).

Born in Palo Alto, Calif., Spurrier Jr. played football at Duke, where he earned his degree in 1994. He later earned a master's degree at Florida in 1996.

Spurrier Jr. and his wife, the former Melissa Beauchamp, are the parents of triplets, Luke, Gavin and Emmaline; Nolan; and twins, Palmer and Hayden.

Lorenzo Ward begins his seventh season with the Gamecocks. After three years of being in charge of the Carolina defense, he will share defensive coordinator duties with Jon Hoke in 2015, with his focus on the running game. Ward was originally named defensive coordinator on January 12, 2009, working under Assistant Head Coach-Defense Ellis Johnson. He coached the cornerbacks in 2011 after being responsible for the corners and free safeties in each of the previous two seasons.

Despite losing all of his linebackers to graduation, the 2013 Carolina defense ranked second in the SEC and 12th in the nation in scoring defense (20.3 ppg) and fifth in the SEC and 19th in the country in total defense (350.0 ypg). The squad held 11 of its 13 opponents to below their season scoring average while intercepting 18 passes. Defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles and defensive end Jadeveon Clowney both earned first-team All-SEC accolades. In addition, Quarles and Clowney each earned a first-team spot on an All-American team, becoming just the second Carolina teammates to earn All-America distinction in the same season.

In 2012, the Gamecocks were ranked in the top-25 nationally in all four statistical categories – 11th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense, 17th in rushing defense and 21st in passing defense. The unit was led by All-American defensive end, Jadeveon Clowney, the Hendricks Award winner, who had a school-record 13 of the team's school-record 43 sacks, the nation's fifth-highest total.

Ward helped guide a defensive unit that finished the 2011 season with the nation's third-highest rated defense, one that surrendered just 268 yards per contest. Carolina boasted the nation's second-best pass defense and ranked 11th in the country allowing just 18.4 points per game. In addition, Carolina forced 32 turnovers. In his debut as the man in charge of the defense, he limited Nebraska to 13 points and 253 yards in the 2012 Capital One Bowl game, and shut them out over the final three quarters while allowing just 64 yards in the second half.

Ward helped lead a Gamecock defense that scored six defensive touchdowns during the 2010 season, a school record, with two scored by his secondary (Stephon Gilmore, D.J. Swearinger). Gilmore was cited as an All-SEC selection during his sophomore campaign.

In his first season at Carolina, Ward's unit helped the Gamecocks rank eighth in the nation in pass defense. In addition, the Gamecocks finished in the upper half in the SEC in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense. Individually, Gilmore earned first-team Freshman All-America accolades.

Ward came to South Carolina after spending one season as the secondary coach on Bobby Petrino's staff at Arkansas. Prior to that, he was on Art Shell's staff with the NFL's Oakland Raiders in 2006.

A former player at Alabama, Ward coached the secondary under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech for seven seasons from 1999-2005, with five of his players earning All-Big East honors and one making the All-ACC squad. The Hokies led the nation in total defense, were third in pass defense and second in pass efficiency defense in 2005.

The 2004 Hokie defense ranked fourth in the nation in both pass defense and interceptions. In 2002, the Hokies led the nation with 24 interceptions. The 2001 defense was No. 2 in the nation in total defense while the 2000 unit was No. 3 in interceptions. The 1999 defense was No. 3 in total defense and No. 7 in pass efficiency defense.

From 1994-99, Ward was an assistant at UT-Chattanooga, including a two-year stint (1998-99) as defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. He coached the defensive backs from 1994-96 and the running backs in 1997. He also coached kickoff coverage and the punt team.

Ward played at Alabama from 1986-89, helping the Crimson Tide go 33-15 with an SEC title in 1989. The Sporting News named him Special Teams Player of the Year following his senior season as Alabama's unit was ranked No. 1 in the nation.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the tutelage of Ellis Johnson at Alabama in 1991, working with the defensive backs, before going to Newnan (Ga.) High School as an assistant in 1992, where he also coached the track team. He returned to Alabama as a graduate assistant in the fall of 1993, working with the outside linebackers, before going to Chattanooga.

Ward earned his bachelor's in physical education from Alabama in 1991.

Ward and his wife, Tara, have one son, Lorenzo Jr.

GRADY BROWN

Quality Control - Defense
Fourth Year At South Carolina

Grady Brown moves from an on-field coaching position for the Gamecock secondary to a quality control coordinator for the defense in 2015. He focus will remain primarily on the secondary.

Brown originally joined the Carolina coaching staff on February 3, 2012.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Brown spent the previous two seasons as the Southern Miss Golden Eagles' cornerbacks coach. During the 2011 campaign, Southern Miss was No. 7 nationally in pass efficiency defense (108.47 rating) and set an NCAA record for interceptions returned for touchdowns with eight.

Brown came to Southern Miss after spending the previous year and a half working in the strength & conditioning area and assisting as a defensive intern at LSU.

Brown went to LSU after working a season at Texas Southern where he was the safeties coach and also the community outreach liaison. His arrival to TSU came after a six-year stint as the secondary coach at Alabama State.

Brown began his coaching career in 2000 at his alma mater, Alabama A&M, before being promoted to the rank of a full-time assistant coach for the 2001 campaign.

After completing his high school career at Wenonah High School in Birmingham, Ala., Brown played defensive back for Alabama A&M from 1995 through 1998. After his senior season, he played one season with the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the Arena Football League.

Brown graduated from Alabama A&M with a degree in mathematics education in 2000. He is married to Rashidah Brown.

SCOTT SPURRIER

Quality Control - Offense
Tenth Year At South Carolina

Scott Spurrier became a full-time member of the Carolina staff in 2014 as the quality control coordinator for the offense.

In his role, he assists the offensive coaches with quality control study of each game and season, including video analysis, charting breakdowns and scouting, and assists with daily personnel management.

Spurrier has been part of the Gamecock family since joining the squad as a walk-on wide receiver in 2006.

Following his graduation in 2009, Spurrier worked in the football office as a graduate assistant until being promoted to a full-time position.

Spurrier and his wife, Jennifer, have one daughter, Charlotte.

BRIAN TURK

Quality Control - Special Teams

COLUMBIA, S.C.— No. 9 South Carolina saw its 18-game home winning streak end tonight to No. 21 Texas A&M, 52-28 at Williams-Brice Stadium in the first-ever meeting between the two teams. Aggie sophomore quarterback Kenny Hill passed for a school record 511 yards and three touchdowns. Senior quarterback Dylan Thompson threw for 366 yards and four touchdowns and senior wide receiver Nick Jones had a career-high 113 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

On a third-and five on the opening drive, Hill stepped up in the pocket to create time and found an open Ricky Seals-Jones over the middle where he weaved his way down to the 1-yard line for a 21-yard gain. Tra Carson punched it in to give Texas A&M an early 7-0 lead just over three minutes into the game. Senior kicker Josh Lambo made it 10-0 with 5:02 left in the first quarter after converting a 33-yard field goal.

South Carolina responded quickly though on the next drive, despite staring down a three-and-out. On his own 31-yard line, Thompson took a shot down the field and found Jones streaking down the field, getting behind the defense to make a grab at the Aggie 30-yard line before heading into the end zone for a 69-yard touchdown. The drive, which took just over a minute, brought the Gamecocks within three at 10-7 with just over three minutes remaining in the opening quarter.

After getting the ball back, South Carolina was unable to sustain the momentum and was forced to punt. During the next 2:22 minutes, Hill methodically moved the ball down the field before connecting with Seals-Jones over the middle for a three-yard score to give the Aggies a 17-7 lead.

Needing a quick response, the Gamecocks found it in senior wide receiver Damiere Byrd. Moving the ball to the Aggie 46-yard line on five plays, Thompson then connected with Byrd after the wideout slipped past his defender and found a 10-yard cushion for an easy 46-yard score to bring the Gamecocks within three at 17-14.

With just over seven minutes remaining in the half, Hill and the Aggies marched down the field with an eight-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in Hill finding Edward Pope in the back of the end zone to make it 24-14.

After Carolina was forced to punt the ball back to Texas A&M with 3:35 left in the half, the Aggies strung together an 11-play, 80-yard drive on the ensuing possession that ended a on Carson's second touchdown as Hill optioned left to the tailback on third-and-goal from 2-yard line. The score gave the Aggies a 31-14 lead heading into intermission.

Early in the third quarter, Hill found Josh Reynolds in the corner of the end zone to make it 38-14. Thompson then engineered an eight-play drive, amassing 81 yards that was capped off by a five-yard touchdown pass to Cooper over the middle to make it 38-21. On the ensuing kickoff, South Carolina went for the onside kick, but it was recovered by the Aggies at the 42-yard line. Eight plays later, Carson scored his third touchdown of the game from two yards out as the Aggies extended the lead to 45-21.

A pair of 27-yard passes to Jerrell Adams and Cooper marched the Gamecocks back into the red zone on the following drive. Thompson was able to find Jones drifting out to the right side of the end zone where the wide receiver hauled in his second touchdown of the game to bring Carolina back within 17 points at 45-28. It was his second multi-touchdown game of his career.

After holding the Aggies to their second punt of the quarter, Carolina had a chance to cut into the deficit late in the third quarter, but a deep ball from Thompson was intercepted by Watts at the Texas A&M 17-yard line. Ten plays and 83 yards later, Trey Williams made it 52-28 with a two-yard touchdown run with 12:09 remaining the game.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— No. 21 South Carolina defeated East Carolina, 33-23, tonight at Williams-Brice Stadium, giving Head Coach Steve Spurrier his 200th win as a coach in the Southeastern Conference. Junior running back Mike Davis led the way with his eighth-career 100-yard rushing game, as he totaled 101 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

After forcing the Gamecocks to punt on the opening possession of the game, a 53-yard punt from Tyler Hull was down at the Pirates' 3-yard line. East Carolina strung together an 11-play drive to move into the red zone, but from there, the drive stalled. The Gamecock defense clamped down and forced the Pirates to convert on a 26-yard field goal by Warren Harvey.

On the following drive, redshirt senior quarterback Dylan Thompson was intercepted by Josh Hawkins, giving ECU the ball at the South Carolina 43-yard line. The Pirates were unable to muster much and Harvey connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the visitors a 6-0 lead with 6:35 on the clock.

Trailing 6-0, the Gamecocks mounted a 10-play drive with Thompson going four-of-five and Davis rushing four times for 48 yards. The tailback capped off the drive by bursting through an open whole on the right side of the line and taking it 36 yards into the end zone to give Carolina a 7-6 lead with 1:56 remaining in the opening quarter.

The Pirates responded though as quarterback Shane Carden went five-of-six for 67 yards on the next drive. Chris Hairston finished the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run to give ECU a 13-7 lead early in the second quarter. Eleven plays later, South Carolina cut the deficit to three with a 39-yard field from sophomore Elliott Fry with 9:55 left in the half.

A three-and-out for the Pirates gave the Gamecock offense a spark and Thompson went four-of-four on the drive connecting on a 31-yard pass down the middle to junior wide receiver Shaq Roland and a 19-yard completion to Davis that got the Gamecocks down to the 3-yard line. The tailback then pounded his way into the end zone on the next play for his second touchdown of the half to give South Carolina a 17-13 lead with under five minutes remaining in the half.

ECU's Breon Allen countered on the next possession with a 42-yard run down to the Gamecock 19-yard line. South Carolina's defense then forced a pair of incomplete passes and a rush for no gain, before junior defensive tackle Gerald Dixon Jr. blocked a 42-yard field goal attempt, the Gamecocks' first blocked field goal since 2011. With just over a minute left before the end of the half, Fry connected on his second field goal, a 42-yarder to take a 20-13 lead.

Aided by a roughing the passer penalty and a 20-yard completion to Cam Worthy, the Pirates set up Harvey for a 40-yard field goal, his third conversion of the half with four seconds remaining, and the Gamecocks held a 20-16 lead at the break.

East Carolina opened the second half driving into Gamecock territory, but on a third-and-five, junior defensive end Cedrick Cooper put pressure on Carden, forcing the Pirate quarterback into a tough throw which spur Sharrod Golightly intercepted just before stepping across the sideline. It was the senior's first career interception.

Thompson completed six-straight passes on the ensuing drive before finding wide receiver K.J. Brent open in the left corner of the end zone for the junior's first-career touchdown reception to push the Gamecocks lead to 27-16 with 8:36 left in the third.

T.J. Gurley intercepted Carden on the Pirates next possession allowing the Gamecocks to use up 5:40 off the clock before Fry converted on a 26-yard field goal to put South Carolina up 30-16 heading into the final stanza. With the Gamecocks seizing control, Carden engineered an 11-play drive, capping it off with a 17-yard touchdown pass across the middle to Worthy to cut the Pirates deficit to 30-23 early in the fourth.

South Carolina put the game away with an 18-play, 86-yard drive, lasting 10:33, the second-longest drive during the Spurrier era, that culminated in a 20-yard field goal conversion by Fry, tying his career-high with four in a game.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— After inclement weather caused an hour and 26-minute delay to the start of the game, lightning struck as No. 24 South Carolina took down No. 6 Georgia, 38-35. After Georgia kicker Marshall Morgan missed his second field goal of the night with 4:24 left, the Gamecocks were able to run out the clock as Dylan Thompson narrowly converted on a fourth-and-inches at midfield to secure the win.

The Gamecocks took the first possession of the game 75 yards to paydirt, climaxed by a Thompson to Shaq Roland 10-yard score. It only took Georgia two plays to respond though as quarterback Hutson Mason connected with Isaiah McKenzie for a 36-yard pass down the right side. On the ensuing play, Mason dumped off a short pass to Sony Michel for a 33-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7.

A Carolina fumble led to a 36-yard field goal from Morgan to give the Bulldogs a 10-7 advantage.

The Gamecocks drove the field agaain on their next possession. Thompson found Pharoh Cooper on the left side where the receiver put a quick left-to-right move on his defender before racing into the end zone for an eight-yard score to put the Gamecocks up 14-10.

Morgan was able to pull the Bulldogs within one at 14-13 with a 26-yard field goal, but Thompson continued to find open receivers as he marched the Gamecocks down the field, finding Damiere Byrd for a 24-yard completion and Jones for a 20-yard pass, before connecting in the back of the end zone with Anderson for an 18-yard touchdown to give Carolina a 21-13 lead with 5:34 remaining in the first half.

With just over two minutes left, Cooper and Byrd rushed for back-to-back first downs as the Gamecocks tried to put together a scoring drive before the end the of the half. Jones came up with a big 25-yard reception along the sideline before taking a big hit to put Carolina at the 22-yard line. An eight-yard run from Davis set up Elliott Fry for a 32-yard field goal to give the Gamecocks a 24-13 lead heading into the half.

Georgia struck on its opening drive in the third quarter as Gurley got loose for a 40-yard run to get to the South Carolina 25-yard line. The Georgia tailback eventually punched in a two-yard touchdown run, bringing the Bulldogs' deficit to 24-20. South Carolina continued to have its way with Georgia's defense on the following drive as Thompson went two-for-two and Davis and Wilds combined for 43 yards on the ground. Thompson capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown rush to push the lead back to 11.

With 2:13 remaining in the third quarter, a personal foul on a Carolina punt put Georgia in good field position. Six plays later, Mason found Jay Rome in the end zone. The two-point conversion cut the deficit to three.

On the ensuing kickoff, junior tailback Shon Carson found space on the left side and picked up a career-long return of 42 yards to put Carolina on the Georgia 42-yard line. Davis picked up 19 on the first two plays of the drive before Wilds finished off the drive by breaking runs of 15 and 24 yards to extend the Gamecocks' lead to 10 at 38-28 with 13:01 to play. Nearly six minutes later, Georgia responded with a one-yard touchdown run from Quayvon Hicks on an 11-play drive.

Four plays into the Gamecocks' following drive, Thompson was intercepted across the middle by Georgia's Damian Swann. With the ball on the Carolina three-yard line, Mason was called for intentional grounding as sophomore defensive end Gerald Dixon came at him unblocked. The Gamecock defense held Georgia to a 28-yard field goal attempt, but the Georgia kicker missed his second attempt of the night.

South Carolina was able to run out the final 4:24 of the game to hold on for the three-point win in front of the fifth-largest crowd in stadium history at 84,232.

GM 4 #14/16 South Carolina 48 Vanderbilt 34

September 20, 2014

NASHVILLE, TENN.— After trailing 14-0 early in the game, No. 14 South Carolina came back to defeat Vanderbilt on the road, 48-34, Saturday night at Vanderbilt Stadium.

It only took 11 seconds into the game for the Commodores to get on the board as Darrius Sims found an alley on the opening kickoff and returned it 91 yards for a touchdown, his first of two of the night, to give Vanderbilt the early 7-0 lead.

Later in the quarter, Patton Robinette hit an open Davis Dudchock for a 29-yard gain off of a play action pass to get the Commodores down to the South Carolina 27-yard line. Vanderbilt moved the ball down inside the 10, and on third-and-goal, Robinette connected with C.J. Duncan on a slant for an eight-yard touchdown to give the home team a 14-0 advantage.

On their third possession of the game, the Gamecocks were able to move the ball into Vanderbilt territory as senior quarterback Dylan Thompson hit Pharoh Cooper, who had been involved early and often, for a 22-yard gain. Unable to move deeper into the Commodores' end, Elliott Fry converted on a 45-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-3 with under 13 minutes left in the first half.

After forcing Vanderbilt to punt on its next possession, momentum began to shift. Back-to-back 19-yard gains from Cooper and Brandon Wilds moved the Gamecocks down to the Commodores' 42-yard line. Four plays later, Damiere Byrd slipped past his defender and Thompson connected with him at the back of the end zone for a 29-yard score to move within four at 14-10 with 5:58 on the clock.

Carolina grabbed its first lead of the night with 23 seconds left before halftime as Brison Williams jumped a late out-route from freshman Wade Freebeck, who entered the game in the first quarter after Robinette left the game with an injury. The defensive back returned the interception 53 yards to give the Gamecocks a 17-14 lead.

On the opening drive of the second half, South Carolina picked up where it left off in the second quarter and moved the ball into Vanderbilt territory. Facing a third-and-15, Thompson got the pass off to Cooper on the left sideline for a 15-yard gain. Following a review of the play, Thompson hit Shaq Roland on a 29-yard post route for a touchdown to extend the Gamecocks' lead to 24-14. On the ensuing kickoff though, Sims struck again, finding a crease and returning the ball 100 yards for his second touchdown of the game to bring Vanderbilt back to within three.

Fry extended the Gamecocks' lead to 27-21 on the next possession, converting from 43 yards out for his second field goal of the night with 6:42 on the clock. Late in the third quarter, the Carolina defense held the Commodores to a 25-yard field goal after Vanderbilt had a first-and-goal from the Gamecocks' five-yard line.

South Carolina responded with a 10-play, 61-yard drive that Thompson capped off by rolling to his right and finding Nick Jones in the corner of the end zone for a 7-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 34-24 with 10:34 left in the game. Vanderbilt followed with a 9-play drive that gave Tommy Openshaw a 46-yard field goal attempt to cut into the deficit, but J.T. Surratt came up with the Carolina's second blocked field goal of the season.

On Carolina's first play of the ensuing drive, Mike Davis lost a fumble. Vanderbilt used the opportunity to close to within seven, at 34-27, after Openshaw converted on a 30-yard field goal with 5:57 remaining.

South Carolina went into the wildcat on the next drive, and on the second play, Cooper broke a 70-yard run before being caught just before he crossed the goal line. Thompson came in on the following play and scored on a one-yard rush to make it 41-27.

After Bryson Allen-Williams recovered a fumble on the kickoff, redshirt David Williams capped off a short drive with a two-yard touchdown run with 1:32 on the clock. With 47 seconds left, Freebeck connected with Kris Kentera for a seven-yard touchdown to make it 48-34.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— No. 13/15 South Carolina fell 21-20 to Missouri Saturday night at Williams-Brice Stadium as the Tigers' tailback Russell Hansbrough scored his third touchdown of the game, a one-yard rush with 1:36 remaining to give Missouri the go-ahead score.

South Carolina opened the game up with the ball, but unable to convert on a fourth-and-one from its own 42, turned the ball over to the Tigers. Missouri quarterback Maty Mauk's second pass on the drive was intercepted on the goal line by sophomore safety Chaz Elder, but an offside penalty on the Gamecocks negated the play. Three plays later, Hansbrough found a hole on the right side, cut outside and found an alley to the end zone for an 18-yard run to give the Tigers a quick 7-0 lead less than three minutes into the game.

With 4:48 on the clock in the first quarter, Missouri's Andrew Baggett lined up for a 48-yard field goal, but the attempt was wide right. Carolina struck on the following play with a 27-yard pass from senior quarterback Dylan Thompson to sophomore wide receiver Pharoh Cooper. A six-yard run from junior tailback Mike Davis and a pass interference call on the Tigers moved the Gamecocks down to the 23-yard line. Unable to convert on a third-and-five from the 18, sophomore kicker Elliott Fry came on and converted a 33-yard field goal to cut Carolina's deficit to 7-3 with just over two minutes remaining in the first quarter.

As the second quarter was winding down, a 42-yard punt from Missouri's Christian Brinser was returned 24 yards by Cooper to the Carolina 41-yard line. Davis took over from there, accounting for 55 yards on four plays, including a 24-yard burst after a short pass from Thompson. That play set up a 17-yard touchdown run, which he cut to the right and bounced to the outside to give the Gamecocks a 10-7 lead with 1:36 remaining before the half.

On the fourth possession of the second half, South Carolina added to its lead with Fry's second field goal of the game, this time from 41 yards out, his fourth this season from 40-plus yards. The attempt was set up by a 47-yard reception from senior wide receiver Nick Jones.

South Carolina extended its lead to 20-7 midway through the fourth quarter as six rushes in seven plays was followed by a 23-yard strike from Thompson to Cooper over the middle. The wideout made a two-handed grab just across the goal line and held on after taking a big hit. The Tigers struck quick though as Mauk covered 67 yards through the air on two plays before Hansbrough capped off a 36-second drive with a one-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 20-14 with 6:49 remaining.

Forced to go three-and-out on its next possession, South Carolina punted the ball back to Missouri with 4:40 remaining. Senior punter Tyler Hull's 48-yard punt was returned 22 yards by Marcus Murphy to midfield. The Tigers converted on a fourth-and-one at the Carolina 42-yard line to keep their drive alive. A Gamecock pass interference call, followed by a 22-yard run by Murphy brought the ball down to the South Carolina two-yard line. On fourth down from the one-yard line, Hansbrough scored the go-ahead score.

LEXINGTON, KY.— In a game that saw multiple momentum swings, South Carolina fell 45-38 to Kentucky as the Wildcats scored 21 unanswered points during the final eight-plus minutes. Defensive end Alvin Dupree gave Kentucky the lead with under three minutes remaining in the game with a six-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Carolina opened the game with the ball and proceeded to use a punishing ground attack that chewed up nearly the first eight minutes that ended with Mike Davis giving the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead with a one-yard touchdown run, his first of three scores on the night. On the drive, South Carolina ran a total of 19 plays, the second-most during the Steve Spurrier era, and 17 of the plays came via the ground, accounting for 70 of the 79 yards.

After getting the ball back just over two minutes later, Carolina nearly lost the ball deep in its own territory on a high snap, but senior quarterback Dylan Thompson was able to fall on the ball. Facing a second-and-18, the Gamecocks went back to the ground, optioning to the left to Davis where the tailback found an open lane and raced out for a 40-yard run to midfield. Thompson was then able to go four-of-four as Carolina continued to march down the field. Davis finished off the drive with a two-yard run to extend the lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter.

Kentucky cut the deficit in half as Jojo Kemp finished off a six-play, 52-yard drive with a three-yard run up the middle. The Wildcats held the Gamecocks to a three-and-out on their next possession, but Carolina was able to force a fumble from Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles. South Carolina turned the fumble into points as sophomore kicker Elliott Fry converted on a 31-yard field goal attempt.

It took the Wildcats just 56 seconds though to pull within three at 17-14 with 3:39 remaining in the half as Braylon Heard had rushes of 15 and 38 on the following drive. With time still left on the clock, South Carolina was able to move the ball down to the Kentucky 15-yard line, but an interception, followed by a 50-yard return by A.J. Stamps gave the Wildcats an opportunity late in the first half. With time expiring, Austin MacGinnis converted on a 47-yard field goal to tie the game at 17.

Kentucky took its first lead of the night on the opening drive of the second half. On third-and-four from midfield, the Wildcats went to a trick play with the ball exchanging hands three times before Towles, on the edge, found a wide open Ryan Timmons down field for a 48-yard touchdown pass to give the home team a 24-17 advantage.

Carolina quickly responded with a five-play drive that ended with a Shon Carson 25-yard run to tie the game at 24.

After the defense was able to force the Wildcats to punt, the Gamecock offense was back on the move despite starting from its own nine-yard line. Carolina steadily moved the ball down the field. Facing a third-and-four at the Kentucky 12-yard line, Thompson found Pharoh Cooper on the left sideline where the wideout spun back inside and dove to the end zone as the Gamecocks regained the lead at 31-24 with 1:48 left in the third quarter.

Carolina extended the lead to 14 early in the fourth quarter as the offense put together an eight-play drive that Davis capped off with a 26-yard run up the middle. Kentucky wouldn't go away though as a 41-yard return on the ensuing kickoff from Demarco Robinson put the Wildcats in South Carolina territory. Seven plays later, Kemp scored his second touchdown of the night on a one-yard run.

After a Carolina punt, the Wildcats came back down the field with Kemp doing the bulk of the work. The running back equalized the game at 38-38 with 2:46 on the clock with a five-yard run.

On the second play of the Gamecocks' ensuing possession, Thompson's pass was batted up in the air and Dupree came up with the interception and returned it six yards for a touchdown to give Wildcats a 45-38 lead with 2:23 remaining. Ashely Lowery sealed Kentucky's win with an interception in the game's final minute.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— South Carolina's ground attack produced 267 yards and three touchdowns on the day as the Gamecocks defeated Furman 41-10 on Homecoming this afternoon at Williams-Brice Stadium.

Redshirt senior quarterback Dylan Thompson opened up the game by going four-of-five on Carolina's opening drive, culminating in a 15-yard fade route to junior wide receiver Shaq Roland in the back of the end zone. It didn't take Furman long to respond, as Hank McCloud, on the Paladins' fourth play of their drive, found an opening on the right side and took the ball 60 yards down the sideline to the end zone to equalize the game.

Starting on their own 25-yard line on their next possession, Thompson led the Gamecocks back down the field before an 11-yard rush from junior tailback Shon Carson and a five-yard touchdown run from junior running back Mike Davis finished off the drive to give South Carolina a 14-7 lead with 5:29 left in the first quarter.

After the teams traded fumbles, the Gamecocks began their next drive with a 25-yard rush to the left side from Davis. The tailback accounted for 19 more yards before Thompson lofted a pass down field to junior Jerrell Adams, which the tight end took into the end zone for a career-long 45-yard reception, his first touchdown of the season.

With 3:22 left in the second quarter, sophomore linebacker Skai Moore came up with a fumble recovery at the Furman 28-yard line. A two-yard run by Davis was followed by the tailback catching a 24-yard pass that moved the ball down to the Paladins' two-yard line. Davis punched it in for his second score of the game to extend Carolina's lead to 28-7 with 2:32 left in the half.

A fumble on the Gamecocks' opening possession of the second half was turned into three points for the Paladins as Hunter Townes converted on a 29-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 28-10 just over five minutes into the half. Eight plays and 84 yards later, including a 56-yard scamper by Carson down to the one-yard line, set up his second touchdown of the season to extend South Carolina's lead to 35-10.

Two plays later, sophomore safety Chris Moody made his first-career interception and returned it 26 yards down to the Furman 36-yard line. Sophomore kicker Elliott Fry gave the Gamecocks a 38-10 advantage with a 27-yard field goal with 5:17 remaining in the quarter. Fry pushed the lead to 31 on Carolina's next possession with a 23-yard field goal as redshirt freshman tailback David Williams accounted for 51 yards on four carries on the nine-play, 62-yard drive.

AUBURN, ALA.— South Carolina went into Jordan-Hare Stadium and pushed No. 5 Auburn to the brink in a shootout, before falling 42-35, as Dylan Thompson tied a school record with five touchdown passes and threw for 402 yards.

The Gamecocks got off to a quick start after electing to receive to start the game. On their second play, Mike Davis busted a 24-yard run to get the ball out to midfield. Three plays later, Thompson hit Pharoh Cooper for a 12-yard gain. After a one-yard run from Davis, Thompson hooked up with Shaq Roland for a 32-yard touchdown along the right pylon.

South Carolina was able to force a punt from Auburn, and subsequently marched right down the field again with 32 yards on two receptions from Cooper and a 28-yard run from Davis. Facing a second-and-11 at the Tigers' 12-yard line, Thompson was intercepted by Tiger Cassanova McKinzy. Aubrun took advantage of the Gamecock turnover and put together an 11-play, 92-yard drive that Brandon Fulse capped off with a three-yard touchdown reception to equalize the game late in the first quarter.

The Gamecocks answered back with a 10-play drive that ended with Thompson connecting with a Cooper for the third time on the possession, this time for a 16-yard touchdown. After an illegal block on the return, Auburn opened its drive inside its own 10-yard line for the second-straight possession, but the Tigers were able to move the ball 93 yards on 10 plays, eight via its ground game, including a two-yard touchdown run from Cameron Artis-Payne.

With the game tied at 14 midway through the second quarter, South Carolina was forced to punt, but after a 28-yard return by Auburn's Quan Bray, the Tiger had the ball knocked loose and Chris Moody jumped on the ball for the Gamecocks. Facing a third-and-10, a facemask penalty on Auburn kept the Gamecocks' drive alive. On the ensuing drive, Davis scored on a 27-yard run. The Tigers though responded two-and-half minutes later as quarterback Nick Marshall found a seam and ran for a 37-yard touchdown to tie the game at 21-21 just minutes before the end of the second quarter.

Coming out of the half, Auburn grinded out a 13-play drive with 11 plays coming on the ground. Marshall's four-yard run gave the Tigers their first lead of the game at 28-21. The back-and-forth affair continued as Carolina, on a second-and-four from midfield, saw Thompson connect with Cooper across the middle and the receiver was able to outrun the Auburn secondary for a 51-yard touchdown.

Just 11 seconds later though, Auburn's Ricardo Louis gave the Tigers the lead back with a 75-yard touchdown return on the kickoff. Trailing midway through the third, and unable to stop the Tigers' offense, the Gamecocks went for it on a fourth-and-six from their own 45-yard line. Thompson found Cooper for a nine-yard gain to extend the drive. Davis followed that up with a 23-yard run, and three plays later Thompson found redshirt senior wide receiver Nick Jones for a 10-yard score to even the game at 35-35 with 2:20 left in the third quarter.

The Gamecocks continued to gamble as they attempted an onside kick, which Skai Moore recovered to give the offense a chance to regain the lead. Carolina moved the ball into the red zone, but Thompson was intercepted for the second time on the night.

As they did in the first half, the Tigers capitalized on the turnover. After moving the ball 71 yards on five plays, Marshall ran for a nine-yard touchdown, his third rushing score on the night, to take a 42-35 lead with 11:22 remaining in the fourth quarter. Carolina was able to get back into the red zone on the ensuing possession, having extended the drive twice on fourth down, but Thompson was unable to connect with Roland on a fourth-and-14 from Auburn's 19-yard line.

The Gamecock defense was able to stop the Auburn offense on the ensuing possession to give its offense a chance with 1:08 left in the game. Thompson and the offense was able to convert on two third downs on the drive, but Jonathan Jones came up with his second interception of the night on a 41-yard pass attempt as time expired.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— Despite a career night from sophomore wide receiver Pharoh Cooper, South Carolina fell to Tennessee, 45-42, at Williams-Brice Stadium on Saturday night.

Cooper caught a career-high 11 passes for a school-record 233 yards and two touchdowns, passed for one score and rushed for another, and also recovered an onside kick, but it wasn't enough.

The Gamecocks opened the scoring when Cooper took a direct snap 11-yards for a touchdown.

The Vols tried to respond, but were stopped on a fourth-and-goal from the 1. However, two plays later though, Dylan Thompson was intercepted by Justin Coleman, setting up the game-tying score.

Tennessee put together an11-play, 80-yard drive to take a 14-7 lead after a seven-yard rush from quarterback Joshua Dobbs, his first of three touchdown runs on the night. On the ensuing drive, Cooper accounted for 67 yards on three plays, ending the possession with a 30-yard touchdown pass down the right sideline to Brandon Wilds to even the game at 14-14.

Dobbs responded with a 36-yard touchdown run with seven seconds left before intermission, giving the Vols another seven-point advantage.

The Gamecocks scored 14 unanswered points in the third quarter, first on a Brandon Wilds' five-yard run, then on a 12-yard strike from Thompson Cooper, putting Carolina on top, 28-21, heading into the final stanza.

The Carolina defense forced a Tennessee three-and-out on its next possession. Three plays later, Thompson threw a rope to Cooper over the middle. The receiver took it 85 yards to the end zone, his longest reception of the season, and his second receiving touchdown in less than two minutes to extend the Gamecocks' lead to 35-21 with 13:22 remaining in the game.

With Tennessee driving on the following possession, senior defensive back Brison Williams shut down the drive by intercepting Dobbs at the Carolina 22-yard line. A three-and-out led to a Gamecock punt, allowing the Vols to start their drive in South Carolina territory. On a fourth-and-six from the 21-yard line, Dobbs connected with Jalen Hurd for a touchdown to bring Tennessee within seven.

Back-to-back negative yardage plays to start the following possession had the Gamecocks looking at a third-and-18. Thompson though found open space on the left side and rushed for 20 yards. On the ensuing play, Wilds broke free down the left sideline for a 70-yard touchdown run, the longest of his career to put the Gamecocks back up 14 at 42-28 with just under five minutes remaining. Tennessee responded again with a 10-play, 78-yard drive that Dobbs capped off with a three-yard run to narrow the margin to seven.

After a failed onside kick, the Vols held the Gamecocks to a three-and-out and proceeded to put together a nine-play, 85-yard drive as Dobbs found Jason Croom over the middle of the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown to tie the game at 42-42 with 11 seconds remaining in regulation.

Medley converted on a 32-yard field goal to put the Vols ahead, 45-42 in overtime. Tennessee sent heavy pressure on the Gamecocks' possession, leading to back-to-back sacks and a hurry on Thompson. On fourth-and-25, Fry missed a 58-yard field goal attempt to end the game.

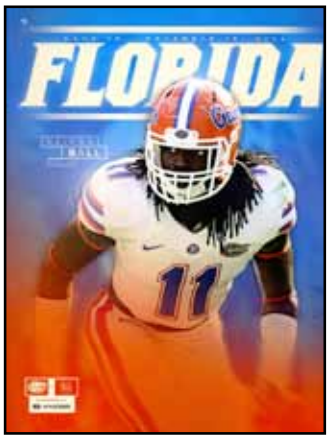
South Carolina 23 Florida 20 (OT)

November 15, 2014
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium
Gainesville, Fla.
85,088



GAINESVILLE, Fla. – After enduring so many heartaches for the season, it would be South Carolina (5-5, 3-5 SEC) that would play the role of spoiler Saturday afternoon, beating the Florida Gators (5-4, 4-4 SEC) 23-20 in overtime. Dylan Thompson would keep it on a read option from four yards out to shock The Swamp and send the Gamecocks home a winner.

With under three minutes to play in the game, South Carolina was faced with a 4th-and-10 at the Florida 41. A bad snap forced a hurried throw and an incompletion to give the home side the ball with 2:32 to play. After three run plays to take the clock all the way down to 46 seconds, the Gators would punt from its own 43.

Junior Carlton Heard would barrel in untouched on the punt attempt, snuffing it out and putting the offense on the Florida 34 yard line. It was the first blocked punt for the program since Devin Taylor at N.C. State in September of 2009.

A pass out to the left sideline to Mike Davis would get a quick 27 yards right off the bat, as the team would have to move fast with 46 seconds to play and no timeouts. Four plays later after the pitch and catch, Davis would fall on a fumbled option pitch in the end zone for a touchdown and a 17-17 game. The Gators would kneel on the ensuing possession to take it to overtime.

In the extra frame, Florida opened with a five-play drive leading to 35-yard field goal to put the pressure on the Carolina offense. Mike Davis would tote it four plays in a row, converting a 3rd-and-3 to the Florida 14 to keep the drive rolling. Two plays later, facing third down at the four-yard line, Thompson ran untouched to the left for the instant win.

Overtime would have never happened had it not been for another clutch play from the Gamecock special teams earlier on in the fourth quarter. With the home side ahead 17-10 and 3:40 left to play, Francisco Velez lined up to attempt a field goal from the 32 to make it a two-possession game. It would be knocked back by Gerald Dixon Jr. to keep it just a seven-point lead.

It appeared to be an all-too-familiar theme for South Carolina early on, as it would dominate the first quarter but would allow the Gators to storm back as the game wore on. Thompson orchestrated an eight play, 85-yard drive in the opening possession of the game, capitalized by a 20-yard touchdown run from Brandon Wilds. Elliott Fry added a 32-yard field goal in the team's next possession to put the them up 10-0, and Carolina would ultimately hold the ball for 11:30 of the opening quarter.

The Gators would use a potent run game to score the next 17 points and force the miraculous comeback from the Gamecocks. Quarterback Treon Harris ran 20 times for 122 yards, and the home side would total 219 yards rushing to just 60 passing on the day.

The Gamecocks would total 299 yards of offense on 80 plays while limiting Florida to 278 on 60, respectively. It is the first road win for the team since Vanderbilt on Sept. 20 and the first win at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium since 2010.

COLUMBIA, S.C.— A stout defensive performance from South Carolina (6-5) would more than make up for its five turnovers, as it held South Alabama (6-5) to just 289 yards of offense and forced five turnovers of its own in a 37-12 win Saturday afternoon.

After the teams traded field goals on the opening drives of the game, the Gamecocks went ahead 10-3 on a 29-yard touchdown pass from senior Dylan Thompson to his classmate, Nick Jones, who would personally finish the first quarter with three catches for 53 yards. Thompson moved into fifth all-time in passing yards for a season on the touchdown to Jones.

The Gamecocks were driving deep into South Alabama territory hoping to extend its lead early in the quarter, but Mike Davis was stripped at the end of an eight-yard rush to give up possession. It would not last long, as its second play from scrimmage would be an interception taken to the house by Brison Williams. The swing pass out to the left-side flat was sniffed out by the senior safety, who ran up from deep coverage, snagged the pass in stride and went 21 yards for the touchdown, his second pick-six of the year for a 17-6 advantage.

Williams would strike again on the Jags' next possession, making a leaping catch at the Carolina 11-yard line to stop a potential scoring drive and record his fourth interception of the season. The Gamecocks would drive near midfield before a mistimed pass from Thompson would be returned by South Alabama to just outside the red zone.

Two plays after giving it up, possession would pinball back to the Gamecocks after Skai Moore stepped in front of a pass at the six-yard line. The celebrations were just starting to die down before the quarter's sixth and final turnover would happen, with Davis fumbling a 13-yard pass from Thompson. That set the Jaguars up for a field goal to close out the half with the Gamecocks up 17-9.

USA had almost 21 minutes of possession in the first half. It was able to soak up the clock thanks to a 5-of-8 success rate on third-down conversions.

While the turnovers would never go away for either side in the second half, the Carolina defense tightened up, allowing just 82 yards in the final 30 minutes and 2.5 yards per play. It also forced four punts and a trio of three-and-outs.

A pair of Elliot Fry field goals was all the scoring that would come in the third quarter for either team, as he hit a career-long 47-yard attempt and a 24 yarder. His second make came after Mason Harris forced a fumble on a sack in Jaguar territory, leading to a 23-9 lead going to the fourth.

The Gamecocks pulled a special trick out of its sleeve to put the game out of reach early on in the fourth. Starting on its own four-yard line, Carolina embarked on a season-long 96-yard drive that ended with a seven-yard pass from Pharoh Cooper to Thompson. Cooper returned the favor to his quarterback just two plays after he took a post route 73 yards to the South Alabama 13 yard line.

In the very next drive, Moore made his second interception of the game and returned it 42 yards to get the home side back in the red zone. One play later, David Williams scampered the final 14 yards for the score and a 37-9 advantage. Of Carolina's four interceptions, three came as the Jaguars were driving into the home half of the field.

Thompson finished his final home game on a high note, exiting to a raucous applause from the home crowd in the team's final drive. Along with his first career touchdown catch, the Boiling Springs native passed for 237 yards.

The offense was able to even out the early advantage in time of possession that South Alabama built by running the ball 37 times for 210 yards with seven different players. Brandon Wilds led the team with 77 yards rushing and Williams went 12 times for 65 yards. In another game flashing his versatility, Cooper finished with 95 yards receiving, 42 yards running and the touchdown pass.

#23/24 Clemson 35 South Carolina 17

CLEMSON, S.C. – The Gamecocks saw their five-game winning streak over Clemson snapped Saturday afternoon, losing 35-17. The Tigers were able to control the line of scrimmage on offense and defense to claim a sizable 487-309 advantage in total yardage, including 221 yards on the ground.

The #23/24 Tigers came up empty on a field goal attempt in its opening drive of the game and South Carolina drove 70 yards to open the game's scoring. Dylan Thompson went 3-for-3 passing for 43 yards on the drive, including a 24-yard strike to Rory Anderson. Pharoh Cooper capped the drive off with a 20-yard touchdown run off a direct snap for a 7-0 lead.

Clemson (9-3) would answer by scoring the next 21 points in the game, broken only by an Elliott Fry field goal just before the end of the first half made it 21-10 for the home side. The 47-yard make tied his previous career high and was set up by a Skai Moore interception. In the opening half, the Gamecocks (6-6) were outgained 307-118 in total yards and allowed over eight yards per play to the Tigers.

Down 28-10 and stuck at their own 12 with ten minutes still to play, the Gamecocks were finally able to break off a big play and rewrite some history in the process. On third and seven, Thompson broke containment and lofted a pass to David Williams along the sideline. He would take it 59 yards down to the Clemson 26, also giving his quarterback the new single-season passing yardage record as well. The senior Thompson passed Todd Ellis' 1987 record of 3,206 and moved up to eighth on the career passing yardage list with 5,107 and a possible bowl game yet to play.

The drive nearly stalled, but Damiere Byrd hauled in a high throw in the back of the end zone on third and goal to draw South Carolina to 28-17. With the touchdown pass, Thompson drew even with his former teammate Connor Shaw for the second-most touchdown passes in a single season. The Tigers would answer back with another touchdown on a five-minute drive that ended with 2:35 to play that put any comeback hope to rest.

Thompson finished the game with 21 completions for 249 yards. The Gamecock run game was grounded by the nation's top defense and was held to just 51 total yards. Along with snapping the win streak it had enjoyed over Clemson, the loss ends an 18-game winning streak against non-conference opponents for Carolina.

South Carolina 24
Miami (Fla.) 21

December 27, 2014
Independence Stadium
Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, LA.— It would come down to the very last minute of the game, but the South Carolina Gamecocks (7-6) secured their 11th-straight season with a record of .500 or better thanks to a 24-21 win over Miami (6-7) in the Duck Commander Independence Bowl.

A bend-but-don't-break defense helped carry the Gamecocks through the early portion of the game while the offense was still finding its footing. Despite a pair of Miami drives that went deep into Carolina territory, the Hurricanes could only muster a pair of field goals after being stopped inside the ten yard line both times.

It took a big play halfway through the second quarter to shake the offense from its slow start. On second down at its own 22, Dylan Thompson hit a wide-open Pharoh Cooper on a post route down the middle for the 78-yard touchdown to move the Gamecocks ahead 7-6 with just under eight minutes to play in the first half. The yardage in just that one play matched the offense's total gains for the entire game up until that point, and tied for the longest pass play in the bowl's history.

The score broke the seal on the offense, which scored on the very next drive after the defense forced a three-and-out from Miami. Starting near midfield, Thompson spearheaded the scoring drive with a trio of difficult throws. After hooking up with Cooper for a 13-yard first down, he followed it up with a 35-yard strike to Damiere Byrd to get to the Hurricane five-yard line.

A penalty pushed the Gamecocks back to the 15-yard line before Thompson rolled to his left and threw across his body to Mike Davis in the back of the end zone for a 14-6 lead.

On the very next drive, a pass from Miami's Brad Kaaya was tipped up in the air and intercepted by Jonathan Walton. The turnover would set up a 32-yard field goal from Elliott Fry and cap the team's scoring for the half, a 17-6 lead.

After struggling to stop Miami's nationally renowned rushing offense in the first quarter, the Gamecocks defense learned quickly and held the opposition to just 44 yards in the second quarter after allowing 160 in just the first two drives of the game.

The third quarter was largely controlled by Miami, who drew within a field goal of tying the game after an 11-play, 93-yard drive for a touchdown and a two-point conversion. The offensive momentum for Carolina would not carry over the break, as its first four drives of the second half would go for just 71 yards on 25 plays.

The Gamecocks continued to be stymied offensively early on in the fourth quarter, before another game-changing moment would provide the difference.

Carolina would punt the ball with seven minutes left in the game, still ahead 17-14. On the drive's second play, Miami's Duke Johnson rushed to the right and was swarmed immediately. Gerald Dixon would emerge from the pile with the ball, but the game officials ruled that he was already down before the ball came out. After it was reviewed, however, it was decided that it was a fumble.

On the ensuing possession, Thompson and Cooper would combine yet again for a big play, as the sophomore wide receiver went over the back of his defender on the under-thrown ball and hauled in the 25-yard strike to set up first-and-goal at the two yard line. On the very next play, Thompson would sell the read option fake and keep it for the touchdown, strikingly similar to his game-winner against Florida.

Miami drove 72 yards in under two minutes for a touchdown to make it 24-21.

With 2:16 still to play and needing to run out the clock, the Gamecocks turned to Davis to seal the win. He converted a third-and-one that would be the clincher, as it forced the Hurricanes to use their final two timeouts.

In his final game in the Garnet and Black, Thompson would finish with 284 yards through the air and a pair of touchdowns to go with his rushing score.

Cooper would bring in nine catches for 170 yards and earned offensive MVP honors for his efforts. Skai Moore earned defensive MVP honors.

South Carolina fielded its first football team in 1892 and for the first three seasons no head coach was designated. The all-time won-lost-tie record includes those three seasons. No football was played in 1893 and in 1906 the trustees abolished the sport for one season.

George Rogers
1980 Heisman Trophy Winner

All-America running back George Rogers won the 1980 Heisman Trophy following his senior season at South Carolina, as he was recognized as the nation's top collegiate football player. The Duluth, Ga., native was a consensus first-team All-America selection that year after leading the nation in rushing with 1,894 yards. Rogers went on to become the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL draft and starred for the New Orleans Saints before moving on to the Washington Redskins, where he helped lead his team to a Super Bowl Championship in 1988. Rogers was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1997.

Sterling Sharpe, who wore No. 2, concluded his career as the school's all-time leading receiver with 169 catches for 2,497 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sharpe had his jersey retired following the 1987 regular season. He became only the second Gamecock to have his jersey retired while he was still active at the school. Sharpe was a first-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 1988. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2014.

Running back Steve Wadiak, who wore No. 37 for Carolina from 1948-51, was the first to have his number retired, after a tragic automobile accident claimed his life. Wadiak, who still appears throughout the Carolina record book, was the school's all-time rushing leader for 28 years after his senior season. Wadiak rushed for 2,878 yards in his career. He led the team in scoring and rushing all four years he played. His number was retired in 1951.

1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers had his No. 38 jersey retired during halftime ceremonies at Carolina's final 1980 home game. Rogers was the first South Carolina player to have his jersey retired while still active at the school. Rogers was the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1997.

2014 Independence Bowl
Carolina 24, Miami (Fla.) 21

December 27, 2014
Independence Stadium
Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, LA.— It would come down to the very last minute of the game, but the South Carolina Gamecocks (7-6) secured their 11th-straight season with a record of .500 or better thanks to a 24-21 win over Miami (6-7) in the Duck Commander Independence Bowl.

A bend-but-don't-break defense helped carry the Gamecocks through the early portion of the game while the offense was still finding its footing. Despite a pair of Miami drives that went deep into Carolina territory, the Hurricanes could only muster a pair of field goals after being stopped inside the ten yard line both times.

It took a big play halfway through the second quarter to shake the offense from its slow start. On second down at its own 22, Dylan Thompson hit a wide-open Pharoh Cooper on a post route down the middle for the 78-yard touchdown to move the Gamecocks ahead 7-6 with just under eight minutes to play in the first half. The yardage in just that one play matched the offense's total gains for the entire game up until that point, and tied for the longest pass play in the bowl's history.

The score broke the seal on the offense, which scored on the very next drive after the defense forced a three-and-out from Miami. Starting near midfield, Thompson spearheaded the scoring drive with a trio of difficult throws. After hooking up with Cooper for a 13-yard first down, he followed it up with a 35-yard strike to Damiere Byrd to get to the Hurricane five-yard line.

A penalty pushed the Gamecocks back to the 15-yard line before Thompson rolled to his left and threw across his body to Mike Davis in the back of the end zone for a 14-6 lead.

On the very next drive, a pass from Miami's Brad Kaaya was tipped up in the air and intercepted by Jonathan Walton. The turnover would set up a 32-yard field goal from Elliott Fry and cap the team's scoring for the half, a 17-6 lead.

After struggling to stop Miami's nationally renowned rushing offense in the first quarter, the Gamecocks defense learned quickly and held the opposition to just 44 yards in the second quarter after allowing 160 in just the first two drives of the game.

The third quarter was largely controlled by Miami, who drew within a field goal of tying the game after an 11-play, 93-yard drive for a touchdown and a two-point conversion. The offensive momentum for Carolina would not carry over the break, as its first four drives of the second half would go for just 71 yards on 25 plays.

The Gamecocks continued to be stymied offensively early on in the fourth quarter, before another game-changing moment would provide the difference.

Carolina would punt the ball with seven minutes left in the game, still ahead 17-14. On the drive's second play, Miami's Duke Johnson rushed to the right and was swarmed immediately. Gerald Dixon would emerge from the pile with the ball, but the game officials ruled that he was already down before the ball came out. After it was reviewed, however, it was decided that it was a fumble.

On the ensuing possession, Thompson and Cooper would combine yet again for a big play, as the sophomore wide receiver went over the back of his defender on the under-thrown ball and hauled in the 25-yard strike to set up first-and-goal at the two yard line. On the very next play, Thompson would sell the read option fake and keep it for the touchdown, strikingly similar to his game-winner against Florida.

Miami drove 72 yards in under two minutes for a touchdown to make it 24-21.

With 2:16 still to play and needing to run out the clock, the Gamecocks turned to Davis to seal the win. He converted a third-and-one that would be the clincher, as it forced the Hurricanes to use their final two timeouts.

In his final game in the Garnet and Black, Thompson would finish with 284 yards through the air and a pair of touchdowns to go with his rushing score.

Cooper would bring in nine catches for 170 yards and earned offensive MVP honors for his efforts. Skai Moore earned defensive MVP honors.

South Carolina	7	6	7	14	34

ORLANDO, FLA. — Behind five touchdowns from quarterback Connor Shaw, No. 8/8 South Carolina (11-2) claimed a 34-24 victory over No. 19/19 Wisconsin (9-4) in the 2014 Capital One Bowl.

The Capital One Bowl MVP, Shaw accounted for 369 yards of offense, going 22-for-25 in the air for 312 yards and 3 TDs while also running for 48 yards on 16 carries and a score. Shaw also caught a TD pass for 9 yards. Junior Bruce Ellington caught six passes for a career-best 139 yards and two touchdowns and threw for another, while sophomore Shaq Roland pulled in six passes for 112 yards, both career bests.

The Gamecocks took the lead late in the third quarter behind the senior quarterback in his final game. Shaw found Ellington from 22 yards away to hand South Carolina a 20-17 advantage, but the duo had a much more pivotal play to keep the drive going. On 4th and 7, Ellington tipped the Shaw pass to himself before pulling it down and going out of bounds for a 22-yard gain and conversion. Shaw's arm accounted for all but three yards of the series, completing six of seven pass attempts on the drive.

South Carolina's defense stepped up to start the fourth quarter to snuff out a Wisconsin drive. With 1 yard to gain, the Gamecocks twice stopped Melvin Gordon, who rushed for 143 yards in the contest, for no gain to turn the ball over on downs. The Gamecocks proceeded to drive 74 yards in six plays to take a 10-point lead. Shaw twice found Roland on the drive, the second time a 49-yard catch that saw Roland's concentration as he brought in the catch among two defenders. It was tight end Jerell Adams who scored from 3 yards out for the Gamecocks, pulling down Shaw's third TD pass.

Wisconsin made it a one-score game again when Kenzel Doe found a seam and dashed 91 yards on the kickoff return, making it 27-24 in favor of the Gamecocks.

On the next possession, however, Shaw drove South Carolina 88 yards for another score, wrapping the drive with Shaw's 1-yard sneak. Another big pass from Shaw to Roland, a 33-yard reception, helped keep the drive alive.

The Badgers, behind backup quarterback Curt Phillips, tried to answer on the next drive, but on 4th and 1 in the Gamecocks' territory, the pass hit Jadeveon Clowney's helmet and sophomore linebacker Kaiwan Lewis corralled it to end that drive. South Carolina gave the Badgers back the ball two plays later when Ethan Armstrong recovered the Gamecocks' fumble.

After the fumble recovery, Wisconsin drove inside the 20, but Gamecock freshman linebacker Skai Moore came up with his second interception of the day in the end zone to stop the Badger threat. After the Gamecocks punted the ball back to Wisconsin, the Badgers drove again deep into South Carolina territory, but Lewis picked up the fumble on the catch-and-pitch attempt.

South Carolina took the initial lead after a Wisconsin turnover toward the end of the first quarter, when Moore picked off the pass from Badger starting quarterback Joel Stave. On the next play, Shaw hit Ellington for a 39-yard score. Wisconsin answered when Sam Arneson brought in the 1-yard pass from Stave on the tight end out, leveling the score at 7-7.

The offensive duo of Shaw and Ellington handed South Carolina the lead again but in reverse from their normal. To cap the 12-play, 86-yard drive, Carolina called up a double-reverse, halfback pass, as Ellington took the second handoff before firing a strike to Shaw from 9 yards out to hand the Gamecocks a 13-7 lead after the PAT attempt failed.

Wisconsin claimed the halftime lead when Stave found Jeff Duckworth for a 3-yard score and its PAT kick went through the uprights. The Badgers made it a 17-13 lead when Jack Russell hit a 35-yard field goal to end the Badgers' first second-half drive.

Shaw finished his Gamecock career in fourth on the career passing charts with 6,074 yards, while he holds the South Carolina record with 27 wins as a starting quarterback. The 312 passing yards ranks as the most during a single game in his senior season.

2013 Outback Bowl
Carolina 33, Michigan 28

January 1, 2013
Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, Fla.

TAMPA, FLA. -- Dylan Thompson's 32-yard touchdown pass to Bruce Ellington with 11 seconds remaining lifted South Carolina (11-2) to a 33-28 victory over Michigan (8-5) to win the 2013 Outback Bowl.

Trailing 28-27 with 3:29 remaining, Carolina made one final drive. Connor Shaw converted a 4th & 3 with a 6-yard slant pass to Ace Sanders and followed that up with completions of 6, 8 and 6, all to Sanders to earn two more first downs. Shaw left the game as he was nicked up, bringing Thompson in the game. Thompson moved the Gamecocks down to the Michigan 32-yardline with 20 seconds left where he unleashed a perfect strike to Ellington near the goal line. The Gamecock wide receiver made his way into the end zone to give the Gamecocks the win.

The back and forth affair saw Shaw and Thompson deliver for Carolina. Shaw finished 18-for-26 for 224 yards in the air and a pair of TDs and added 96 yards rushing. Thompson was 7-for-10 for 117 yards and two scores.

Sanders caught 9 passes for 92 yards with two touchdown receptions as well as a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown en route to MVP honors.

The Gamecocks needed just three plays to find the end zone. Damiere Byrd got behind the Wolverine secondary and Shaw connected with him for a 56-yard scoring strike to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead.

Michigan trimmed the lead to 7-3 with a 39-yard field goal.

After the Carolina defense pushed the Wolverines back to their own 9-yard line with a sack by Aldrick Fordham, Michigan punted to Sanders, who weaved his way 63 yards to the end zone, giving the Gamecocks a 14-3 advantage.

The Wolverines answered with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by a 5-yard pass from Devin Gardner to Drew Dileo.

The Gamecocks regained their 11-point lead quickly with a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Thompson found Nick Jones across the middle for a 70-yard pass to set Carolina up at the Michigan 4. From there Thompson rolled right and found Sanders open in the end zone to give the Gamecocks a 21-10 lead with 10:54 left in the half.

A 40-yard field goal by Gibbons closed the gap to 21-13 at the intermission.

Michigan got a 52-yard field goal from Matt Wile, then went on a 10-play, 65-yard scoring drive capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass from Gardner to Jeremy Gallon to take a 22-21 heading into the final stanza.

After a very questionable first down was awarded to the Wolverines, Jadeveon Clowney made a big defensive play. Clowney forced and recovered a fumble by tailback Vincent Smith giving the Gamecocks the ball on the Michigan 31-yardline. South Carolina quickly struck then as Shaw completed a 31-yard touchdown pass to Sanders as the Gamecocks reclaimed a 27-22 lead.

Michigan answered on its ensuing drive to take a 28-27 lead. An 11-play 64-yard drive took up over four minutes on the clock and was capped by a 17-yard pass from Gardner to Gallon, his second touchdown reception of the game.

ORLANDO, FLA. – No. 10/9 South Carolina wrapped up one of the most successful seasons in school history with a 30-13 victory over No. 21/20 Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl.

With the win, Carolina finishes the season 11-2, becoming the first team in school history to reach 11 wins.

Junior receiver Alshon Jeffery played a key role in leading South Carolina to it's record-setting win and made a little history of his own. Jeffery finished the day with four receptions for 148 yards and a touchdown on his way to earning bowl MVP honors.

Gamecock quarterback Connor Shaw had a stellar end to his sophomore campaign, completing 11-of-17 passes for 230 yards and two touchdowns. He added 42 yards and one touchdown on the ground. Junior running back Kenny Miles finished with 67 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries and had two receptions for 13 yards and a score.

The Gamecock defense delivered another solid performance, holding Nebraska to 253 yards of total offense with just 64 yards allowed in the second half. Carolina tied a season-high with six sacks on the day, including two from freshman Jadeveon Clowney and 1.5 from senior Melvin Ingram. Junior D.J. Swearinger and senior Antonio Allen led the way with seven tackles apiece.

The Cornhuskers (9-4) struck first. On Nebraska's third play from scrimmage, quarterback Taylor Martinez found Kenny Bell for a 30-yard touchdown strike. However, Travian Robertson blocked the extra point and Stephon Gilmore returned it for two points to make it a 6-2 game.

Bruce Ellington gave Carolina excellent field position on the ensuing possession with a 45-yard kickoff return. A 24-yard run by Miles set up the Gamecocks deep in Nebraska territory. Shaw capped the drive on fourth and goal by punching it in from a yard out, giving Carolina a 9-6 advantage.

Nebraska answered with an eight-play, 60-yard scoring drive, aided by a Carolina drive-extending penalty, to regain the lead. Ameer Abdullah finished off the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Cornhuskers a 13-9 lead.

Both teams missed golden opportunities to score in the second quarter. Nebraska lost a fumble in the redzone, then Carolina came up empty after a 78-yard pass to Jeffery set them up with a first-and-goal situation.

Stephon Gilmore gave the Gamecocks one more chance to score before halftime by intercepting a Martinez pass at the Gamecock 26. With seven seconds until intermission from the Carolina 49, Shaw rolled right and heaved it downfield where Jeffery leaped over a defender, came down with the ball and dove into the end zone for a 16-13 lead heading into the locker room.

The Gamecocks pushed their lead to 23-13 early in the fourth quarter with a five-play, 41-yard scoring drive. Shaw hooked up with Ace Sanders for a 23-yard pass play on third and 18 to move the ball to the Nebraska 11. Two plays later, Shaw found a wide-open Miles for a 9-yard touchdown pass.

Miles added a 3-yard touchdown run with 3:05 left for the final score.

2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl
Florida State 26, Carolina 17

December 31, 2010

Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, GA.—EJ Manuel threw a fourth-quarter touchdown pass to stop a South Carolina rally and lead Florida State to a 26-17 victory over the Gamecocks in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Manuel took over after senior quarterback Christian Ponder left early in the second quarter with a concussion. The sophomore appears ready to assume the starting role next season.

Manuel completed 11-of-15 passes for 84 yards and a touchdown and had seven carries for 46 yards. He was 7-for-7 passing on the fourth-quarter touchdown drive.

Dustin Hopkins kicked four field goals for the No. 23 Seminoles (10-4), who reached 10 victories for the first time since 2003. Hopkins tied his own school record for a bowl, and the four field goals also matched the Chick-fil-A Bowl record.

No. 19 South Carolina (9-5), which was seeking its first 10-win season since 1984, lost star running back Marcus Lattimore when he was hit hard on the Gamecocks' first drive. Coach Steve Spurrier's team also committed five turnovers.

"We had (414) yards," Spurrier said. "It wasn't a terrible offensive performance. It was just the turnovers that hurt us."

"Stephen struggled early and then he made some pretty decent throws in the second half," Spurrier said. "It looked like we had a chance to get back in the game."

Garcia recovered to lead two long touchdown drives that trimmed Florida State's lead to 19-17 before Manuel answered with the seven-yard scoring pass to Taiwan Easterling.

"Man, I was so happy," Manuel said. "We weren't moving the ball like we wanted to. We weren't getting touchdowns. We were getting field goals instead."

Florida State cornerback Greg Reid, whose hits caused the fumbles by Lattimore and Jeffery, deflected a fourth-down pass by Garcia with 3:23 remaining to end the Gamecocks' last hope.

Garcia completed 19 of 34 passes for 243 yards and also scored on a nifty play in the third. On a third-down play from the Florida State three, Garcia threw a screen pass to Ace Sanders, who threw back across the field to Garcia alone in the right side of the end zone.

The Seminoles answered with Hopkins' fourth field goal, from 45 yards, to push the lead to nine. Hopkins also kicked four field goals in the Seminoles' Gator Bowl win over West Virginia.

Garcia responded by leading a 79-yard drive, capped by Brian Maddox's seven-yard TD run. Garcia helped set up the score with a 29-yard pass to Jeffery.

Reid's hit on Lattimore knocked the freshman out of the game with an injury announced as a cut to his mouth. Spurrier said after the game that Lattimore also had "a little bit of a concussion" and was taken to a hospital for stitches.

2010 Papajohns.com Bowl
Connecticut 20, Carolina 7

January 2, 2010
Legion Field
Birmingham, Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. —Andre Dixon rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown and resilient Connecticut (8-5) ended a trying season with a 20-7 victory over the South Carolina Gamecocks (7-6) in the Papajohns.com Bowl on Saturday.

Dixon was the Most Valuable Player and joined teammate Jordan Todman as 1,000-yard rushers, the first time two UConn backs have surpassed that mark in the same season.

Carolina quarterback Stephen Garcia completed just 16 of 38 passes for 129 yards while gaining 56 yards on 15 carries. He lost a fumble, was intercepted once and didn't get much help. An emotional Garcia called the Gamecocks' performance "very disappointing."

He said they never got it going, "and it shows on the scoreboard."

UConn had a pristine performance, with zero penalties. Linebacker Lawrence Wilson called it "the most complete game we've played all year."

The Gamecocks avoided their first shutout in three seasons on Brian Maddox's 2-yard touchdown run with 3:24 left. Their only other possession ending in UConn territory resulted in a botched field goal attempt.

The Gamecocks' effort was marred by dropped passes, a missed interception and costly penalties that kept a mostly garnet-and-black clad crowd subdued -- and steadily shrinking by the fourth quarter.

Leading receiver Alshon Jeffery was held to three catches for 28 yards, all in the first half. Tailback Kenny Miles had just six carries for 24 yards.

Dixon's 10-yard touchdown with 13:12 left effectively put the game away. Jesse Simpson had set the Huskies up at the Gamecocks' 29-yard line by forcing Garcia to fumble, knocking it away from behind at the end of a run.

A South Carolina team that pounded Clemson with 58 runs in a win to finish the regular season finished with 26 rushes for 76 yards.

UConn jumped ahead 13-0. Kashif Moore snagged the ball one-handed down the right sideline for a 37-yard touchdown catch from Zach Frazer in the first quarter. Dave Teggard then hit field goals of 33 and 44 yards. The first kick was set up when Garcia was stopped on a sneak on fourth-and-1 from South Carolina's 32.

South Carolina didn't even manage its initial first down until midway through the second quarter, and that took Garcia converting a third-and-16.

South Carolina's sloppy play continued into the second half. Running into the kicker and roughing the passer calls helped UConn keep its first drive alive for more than seven minutes, though it ended with a fumble.

Then, cornerback Akeem Auguste dropped an easy interception with nothing between him and the end zone.

2009 Outback Bowl
Iowa 31, Carolina 10

January 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, Florida

TAMPA, FLA. – Shonn Greene, the Big Ten's most valuable player, rushed for 121 yards and three touchdowns Thursday, helping the Hawkeyes trounce South Carolina 31-10 in the Outback Bowl.

Greene ran for more than 100 yards in all 13 of Iowa's games and scored in all but one. He finished with school single-season records of 1,850 yards and 20 TDs.

Iowa (9-4) won for the sixth time in seven games since losing three straight to fall to 3-3. South Carolina (7-6) lost three straight down the stretch while being outscored 118-30.

Greene scored on a pair of 1-yard runs to help Iowa build a 21-0 halftime lead, then added an 11-yarder to make it 31-0 late in the third quarter. South Carolina scored on Chris Smelley's 10-yard TD pass to Jared Cook and Ryan Succop's 48-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

After struggling offensively in lopsided losses to Florida and Clemson, Gamecocks coach Steve Spurrier decided to start quarterback Stephen Garcia, a highly regarded redshirt freshman from Tampa who was the centerpiece of his recruiting class in 2007.

But Garcia turned the ball over four times in the first half and was replaced by Smelley after going 9-for-18 for 79 yards and three interceptions.

The 20-year-old's homecoming turned sour in a hurry. His first pass was intercepted and returned 29 yards set up an Iowa touchdown, then the dual-threat quarterback fumbled on his first run to give the Gamecocks turnovers on two of their first four offensive plays.

The next two South Carolina possessions ended with interceptions. After Bradley Fletcher picked off Garcia in the end zone, Iowa drove 80 yards to take a 21-0 lead on Greene's second touchdown.

Ricky Stanzi was intercepted twice before halftime, but neither mistake really hurt the Hawkeyes. Iowa was trying to turn's Garcia's third interception into a quick TD when South Carolina's Chris Culliver made a leaping pick in the end zone.

Smelley, who started nine games for South Carolina this season, replaced Garcia at the start of the second half. Moe Brown fumbled on the quarterback's first completion to set up an Iowa field goal, but the Gamecocks did have some success moving the ball the rest of the game.

Stanzi was 13-for-19 for 148 yards, including a 6-yard TD throw to Trey Stross on the first drive of the game. Smelley finished 16-of-31 for 174 yards and no interceptions.

2006 Liberty Bowl
Carolina 44, Houston 36

December 29, 2006
Liberty Bowl Stadium
Memphis, Tennessee
56,103

MEMPHIS, TENN. – Steve Spurrier's offense was humming along in the first half, but the South Carolina defense was doing nothing to stop Houston.

In the final 30 minutes, Spurrier's Gamecocks got a little D to go with their O.

Defensive end Jordin Lindsey came up with two turnovers for a defense that made the stops that mattered most, and South Carolina beat Houston 44-36 in the Liberty Bowl on Friday for its first bowl victory under Spurrier.

Blake Mitchell tied a bowl record by throwing four touchdown passes, Cory Boyd ran for two more TDs as the Gamecocks (8-5) finished Spurrier's second season with their best record since going 9-3 in 2001.

Kevin Kolb, making his 50th start at quarterback for Houston (10-4) finished 26-of-39 for 386 yards and three touchdowns.

Houston led 28-27 at the half - a Liberty Bowl record for points in a half - but South Carolina held the Cougars to 63 yards in the third quarter when the Gamecocks took control. They sacked Kolb three times, forced two turnovers and stopped the Cougars twice on fourth down in the fourth quarter.

The Cougars and Gamecocks combined for 588 yards in the first half, much of it just before halftime. The second quarter took 61 minutes, and a game that was tied at 7 went haywire. In the final three minutes of the half, four TDs were scored in a span 12 plays - the last a 77-yard TD catch by Houston's Vincent Marshall with 11 seconds left.

The Cougars didn't score in the second half until Jackie Battle ran in from 3 yards out with 5:42 left. The 2-point conversion cut South Carolina's lead to 44-36.

Houston outgained South Carolina 527-512, but the Cougars managed only 200 in the second half.

With a pair of coaches known for their offensive ingenuity, this had a little of everything: four TDs in a span of 12 plays, a flea flicker for an interception, a punt on fourth-and-goal, a halfback pass and an option by Houston when backed up against its own goal line.

Ryan Succop kicked a 45-yard field goal into winds gusting up to 20 mph on the Gamecocks' opening drive of the second half to put South Carolina ahead to stay at 30-28. Mitchell padded the lead with a pair of 43-yard TD passes to Kenny McKinley, the last with 7:39 to go for a 44-28 lead.

Mitchell, the game's Most Valuable Player, was 19-of-29 for 323 yards.

Houston ruined its best scoring chance on the drive after Succop's kick.

In the shotgun on third-and-goal at the 8, a bad snap went wide right of Kolb, who tried to chase down the ball and kicked it out of bounds for a penalty. That forced Houston to punt from midfield after having first-and-goal.

2005 Independence Bowl
Missouri 38, Carolina 31

December 30, 2005
Independence Stadium

SHREVEPORT, LA. – South Carolina's game plan of keeping Brad Smith in check worked great - for a half, anyway.

Then, the Missouri quarterback broke loose, rushing for three touchdowns - including a 1-yarder in the final minutes - and passing for another to rally the Tigers for a 38-31 victory in the Independence Bowl.

Smith accounted for 431 yards of Missouri's 504 yards as the Tigers staged their biggest comeback of the year.

Missouri (6-6) trailed 21-0 after the first quarter as Steve Spurrier's Gamecocks dominated the first half. South Carolina (7-5) outgained Missouri 312 yards to 174 in the first half and held the football almost 11 minutes longer (20:02-9:58)

Mizzou didn't convert a third down until the final 58 seconds of the half.

Smith completed 21 of 37 passes for 282 yards, with one touchdown and an interception. He passed for 200 or more yards for the 18th time. He also ran for 150 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

The Gamecocks needed less than 3 minutes to go 80 yards for their first score. Blake Mitchell's 23-yard pass to Sidney Rice put Carolina up 7-0. Rice finished with 12 receptions for 191 yards.

Tony Temple fumbled on Missouri's first play and South Carolina's Ricardo Hurley scooped up the ball. Four plays later Mike Davis, who ran for 125 yards on 18 carries, scored on a 5-yard run for a 14-0 lead.

The Gamecocks' third scoring drive covered 69 yards in 1:59. This time Mitchell, who completed 20 of 38 passes for 266 yards, hit Carson Askins with a 20-yard scoring pass to make it 21-0. Mitchell passed for two touchdowns, and was intercepted three times.

Marcus King gave Missouri its first points, grabbing Mitchell's pass at the goal line and returning it 99 yards to make it 21-7 in the second quarter.

After Davis' 2-yard TD run gave the Gamecocks a 28-7 lead, Missouri staged its first long drive of the game. The Tigers went 77 yards and Smith hit Chase Coffman with a 5-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14 at halftime. Coffman finished with eight catches for 99 yards.

Smith pulled Mizzou to 28-21 with a 31-yard run with 2:41 left in the third.

Another apparent Missouri TD was nullified by a 15-yard penalty. Smith finally got the score on a 4-yard run that tied the score at 28 early in the fourth quarter.

Crossett kicked a 50-yard field goal to put the Tigers up 31-28, but Josh Brown countered with a 30 yarder that tied it at 31-all.

Then, with 2:13 remaining, Smith sealed the Missouri win with a 1-yard TD run.

2002 Outback Bowl
Carolina 31, Ohio State 28

January 1, 2002
Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, Florida

TAMPA, FLA — With the score tied and no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver knew his 42-yard field goal attempt wasn't his best effort. So he put his faith in the wind.

The kick barely cleared the crossbar, as No. 14 South Carolina survived with a 31-28 win over No. 22 Ohio State in the Outback Bowl.

Steve Bellisari led Ohio State from a 28-0 deficit to tie the score. But he was intercepted by Sheldon Brown, whose return to Ohio State's 29 with 23 seconds left set up Weaver's first game-winning kick.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. But none of that mattered when Bellisari finally got the Buckeyes (7-5) going.

He ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half.

Bellisari, who was 21-of-35 for 320 yards, then drove Ohio State to the South Carolina 18 but lost the snap. South Carolina linebacker Jeremiah Garrison recovered.

On the next play, Derek Watson fumbled right back to Ohio State's Mike Doss. Three plays later, Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21.

Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. Bellisari went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch.

Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left. A celebration penalty backed them up to their 18, but no one at Raymond James Stadium was doubting Bellisari.

However, the long pass was picked off by Brown, whose twisting, cutback 37-yard return gave the Gamecocks hope.

Much of the credit for South Carolina's turnaround goes to Petty, an unspectacular yet efficient senior who has started the past three years.

Petty had throws of 9 yards to Watson and 13 to Brian Scott that set up South Carolina's first score, a 1-yarder by the beefy, 250-pound Pinnock.

On the Gamecocks' next drive, Petty passed to Scott for 30 yards and Pinnock for 9, ending things with Scott's 7-yard grab over freshman safety Dustin Fox to lead 14-0 at the half.

Petty started the third quarter with a 50-yard TD throw to Andrea Gause. Pinnock's 10-yard run made it 28-0 before the fun began.

Ohio State started strongly, forcing three first-quarter punts, including a bowl record 70-yarder by Tyeler Dean.

But after Bellisari hit Sanders on a 17-yard pass that was Ohio State's longest play at the time, defensive end George Gause stripped the ball to start the Gamecocks' first touchdown drive.

2001 Outback Bowl
Carolina 24, Ohio State 7

TAMPA, FLA. — South Carolina capped off its amazing turn-around season with an impressive 24-7 win over Ohio State in the 2001 Outback Bowl.

Claiming only the second bowl victory in the program's history, the Gamecocks ended the season 8-4 and ranked No. 19 in the AP rankings and No. 21 in the USA Today/ESPN poll.

Sophomore running back Ryan Brewer had a day to remember. The Troy, Ohio, native, who chose Carolina over his home-state university, dismantled the Buckeyes both on the ground and in the air. Brewer carried the ball 19 times, gaining 109 yards, and caught three passes for another 92 yards. The eventual game MVP was responsible for all of USC's touchdowns, scoring on runs of seven and two yards and a 28-yard TD reception early in the fourth quarter that put the game out of reach.

Also contributing on the offense for USC was quarterback Phil Petty. The junior was 9-of-19 for 175 yards and a touchdown. Jermale Kelly and Brian Scott each caught three passes.

Defensively, the Gamecocks were led by linebacker Kenny Harney who had a total of eight tackles (six unassisted), with two of those going for a loss. True freshman Deandre' Eiland contributed from his free safety position with two interceptions and tackles with three of them adding up to 17 yards of lost yardage for the Buckeyes.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Carolina 24, West Virginia 21

January 2, 1995
Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, Florida

MIAMI, FLA.— The Gamecocks defeated West Virginia 24-21 in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

South Carolina quarterback Steve Taneyhill threw for one touchdown, ran for another and was named the game's MVP. Brandon Bennett rushed for 100 yards and fullback Stanley Pritchett scored the Gamecocks' final TD with a 1-yard power run.

The win was the first in nine bowl tries for South Carolina (7-5) and the fifth consecutive postseason loss for the Mountaineers (7-6).

Mountaineers tailback Jimmy Gray fumbled on their opening play and six plays later Taneyhill hit Boomer Foster for a 2-yard TD.

Quarterback Chad Johnston was driving West Virginia for a go-ahead score in the third quarter when the ball glanced off Lovett Purnell and was caught by cornerback Ben Washington. His twisting, juking, 42-yard return led to Pritchett's score, and West Virginia couldn't recover.

Still, the Mountaineers trailed by three throughout the final period, twice giving the ball up on downs in the final six minutes.

The Gamecocks had chances to extend the lead, but failed.

They went on a 12-play drive that got to West Virginia's 4, but Taneyhill was sacked and a field goal try was blocked.

Pritchett went on a 28-yard run with 1:14 left and was headed for a score, but fumbled the ball and West Virginia took over on its 3. Johnston, though, was sacked for the sixth time and Carolina's lead was safe.

Up 10-7, Taneyhill ended a 14-play drive just before halftime with his second touchdown run of the season. The junior ducked between two defenders, faked a throw at the line of scrimmage and dived over the top for a 4-yard score.

Reed Morton set a Carquest Bowl record with a 47-yard field goal, giving the Gamecocks a 10-0 lead in the second quarter.

West Virginia tripped itself up several times in the first half. Brooks stopped Kantroy Barber for no gain on fourth-and-2 at the Gamecocks 23. After the Mountaineers recovered Monty Means' fumble on South Carolina's next drive, Vanterpool lost the ball at the end of a 25-yard completion on the next play.

Another West Virginia sequence - this time an eight-play series - ended at South Carolina's 29 when Brooks knocked away a fourth-down pass to Robert Walker in the end zone.

Robert Walker gained 132 yards, including 62 during West Virginia's only scoring drive of the first half. He bounced through the left side for a 24-yard touchdown run to make it 10-7.

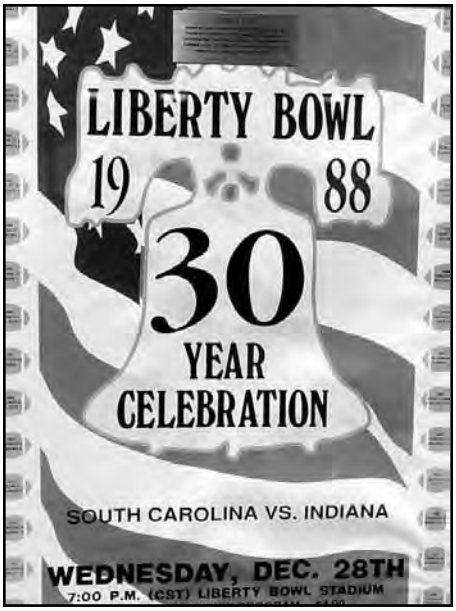
1988 Liberty Bowl
Indiana 34, Carolina 10

December 28, 1988
Liberty Bowl Stadium
Memphis, Tennessee
39,210



MEMPHIS, TENN.—Dave Schnell passed for 378 yards and two touchdowns, including an 88-yard game-breaking toss to Rob Turner, leading Indiana to a 34-10 Liberty Bowl victory over South Carolina.

The victory capped an 8-3-1 season for Indiana. Carolina ended the year 8-4. The Gamecocks never have won a bowl game, dropping to 0-8 with the loss.

Collin Mackie had kicked a 43-yard field goal for South Carolina, making it 20-10. But Schnell then put the game away on the first play of the fourth quarter.

He spotted Turner behind the secondary and Turner pulled in the pass at the Gamecocks' 40. He never was touched on the longest scoring pass in Liberty Bowl history.

Indiana established its dominance on its first play from scrimmage as Anthony Thompson ignited an eight-play, 88-yard scoring drive with a 48-yard run to the Gamecocks' 40-yard line. Seven plays later, Thompson, who gained 63 yards on five carries during the drive and 140 yards in the game, scored from the 7.

Cornerback Erick Coleman set up the Hoosiers' next drive when he intercepted Todd Ellis at the Indiana 31 and brought the ball back to the Gamecocks' 40.

Schnell, who completed 16 of 31 passes and was named the game's most valuable player, took Indiana to the 10-yard line in four plays before connecting with Cal Miller for the Hoosiers' second touchdown.

Miller, who was slashing across the middle of the defense, took Schnell's pass at the 4 and sliced his way through two South Carolina defenders at the 1 for a 14-0 lead with 5:54 left in the half.

The Hooisers turned another turnover into three points late in the half. Andre Hall halted a South Caroina drive at the Hoosiers' 16 with an interception with 2:23 left in the half.

Schnell and Tony Buford combined for a 46-yard pass play to the Gamecocks' 38 on first down. Thompson broke free along the left sideline on the next play, but stepped out of bounds at the 12.

The South Carolina defense then stiffened, and Peter Stoyanovich kicked a 28-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

South Carolina's defense put the Gamecocks back in contention in the third quarter. Antonio Walker blocked a punt by Mackey Smith and Mike Tolbert picked it up and ran 34 yards for a score.

Indiana drove 55 yards to the South Carolina 1 later in the quarter, but a mishandled snap by Schnell and an incomplete pass forced another field goal by Stoyanovich, from 19 yards, and a 20-7 lead.

1987 Mazda Gator Bowl
LSU 30, Carolina 13

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—South Carolina's blitzing defense backfired Thursday against seventh-ranked Louisiana State, which beat the Gamecocks 30-13 in the Gator Bowl.

LSU quarterback Tom Hodson eluded the South Carolina rush and threw three touchdown passes to wide receiver Wendell Davis, who was able to get open against the Gamecocks' one-on-one coverage. Hodson completed 20 of 32 passes for 224 yards.

Davis, LSU's all-time leading receiver, caught nine passes for 132 yards. The touchdown receptions covered 39, 12 and 26 yards.

David Browndyke booted field goals of 27, 18 and 23 yards to complete the LSU scoring.

Hodson's first two scoring passes to Davis came in the first five minutes of the game as the Tigers, who finished 10-1-1, jumped to an early 14-0 lead.

Louisiana State opened a 27-6 lead before ninth-ranked Carolina, 8-4, scored its only touchdown on a 10-yard run by Harold Green at the start of the fourth quarter.

South Carolina quarterback Todd Ellis, who broke a finger on his left hand in the second quarter, threw four interceptions and was sacked seven times for losses totaling 62 yards. Ellis completed 28 of 47 passes for 304 yards.

The Tigers took a 7-0 lead when Davis caught a sideline pass and eluded three tacklers on the 39-yard scoring play. That scoring drive was set up when Clapp sacked Ellis for a 20-yard loss, forcing the Gamecocks to punt from their own 16.

On South Carolina's next offensive series, LSU's Greg Jackson picked off an Ellis pass and returned it 48 yards to set up Hodson's second scoring pass.

Davis slipped behind South Carolina's secondary to catch a perfectly thrown ball by Hodson into the corner of the end zone as the Tigers took a 14-0 lead with 9:59 left in the opening quarter.

South Carolina took advantage of LSU's first turnover, a fumble by Davis at his own 32, to set up a 44-yard field goal by Collin Mackie.

Browndyke sandwiched field goals of 27 and 18 yards around a 39-yard field goal by Mackie in the second period as LSU took a 20-6 halftime lead

The Tigers took a 27-6 lead when Davis pulled in Hodson's 26-yard scoring pass to climax their opening drive of the second half.

LSU's defense not only forced five South Carolina turnovers, but limited the Gamecocks' to 25 yards net rushing. Jackson picked off two Ellis passes, returning the interceptions for total of 92 yards.

Although he wasn't sacked, Hodson fumbled twice. Both fumbles were recovered by South Carolina noseguard Roy Hart.

South Carolina has suffered four of its seven bowl losses in the Gator Bowl.

1984 Gator Bowl
Oklahoma St. 21, Carolina 14

December 28, 1984
Gator Bowl Stadium
Jacksonville, Florida

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Tight end Barry Hanna, who had not scored all season, turned Rusty Hilger's short pass into a dramatic 25-yard touchdown with 1:04 left to play, lifting ninth-ranked Oklahoma State (10-2) to a 21-14 Gator Bowl victory over No. 7 South Carolina.

The bitter setback prevented South Carolina from winning for the first time in six bowl trips, although the Gamecocks, also 10-2, are the first team in the school's history to win more than eight games in a season.

Hanna caught Hilger's pass at the Carolina 21, evaded a would-be tackler and was hit at the 8-yard-line, but dragged three defenders into the end zone.

The winning touchdown capped an 88-yard drive in 11 plays, with Hilger completing six of eight passes for 75 yards, including a 13-yarder to Hanna on fourth-and-six from the South Carolina 49.

Oklahoma State thoroughly dominated the first half and took a 13-0 lead on Thomas' 1-yard run in the first period and his 6-yard pass to Hilger in the second quarter. But the Cowboys had to come from behind after South Carolina scored twice in the third period despite less than two minutes of possession time.

The Gamecocks, whose offense was the nation's ninth best during the regular season, were held to just 71 yards in the first two periods by State's 8th-ranked defense and were shut out for the first time in any half this year.

And even though they had the football for just 1:42 in the third quarter, they managed to take a 14-13 lead on halfback Quinton Lewis' 24-yard pass to Chris Wade and a 57-yard bomb from quarterback Mike Hold to Ira Hillary. The first strike covered 71 yards in four plays and 56 seconds, while the latter was a two-play, 77-yard thrust that took only 40 seconds.

The Gamecocks' only other possession in the third period ended with a fumble on the first play, one of four South Carolina turnovers.

Oklahoma State's first-half touchdowns capped methodical, time-consuming drives of 69 and 74 yards.

Thomas and Hilger produced all the yards as Oklahoma State took a 7-0 lead on its first possession. Thomas carried eight times for 40 yards, including an 18-yard burst to the 3, while Hilger completed all four pass attempts for 29 yards.

Roach missed a 47-yard field goal attempt 1 1/2 minutes later, but the Cowboys made it 13-0 at 5:21 of the second period after linebacker Ricky Adams recovered a fumble by Hold at the OSU 26.

The 15-play drive included a 20-yard back-hand shovel pass from Hilger to Thomas. On third-and-goal from the six, Hilger pitched right to Thomas, and the tailback lobbed the ball back to the left to Hilger, who scored easily.

1980 Gator Bowl
Pittsburgh 37, Carolina 9

December 29, 1980
Gator Bowl Stadium

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—South Carolina's second trip to the prestigious Gator Bowl was not much better than the first trip — 34 years before. The Pitt Panthers, gunning for a national championship, poured it on the Gamecocks, 37-9.

The game matched two nationally-ranked teams. Pitt came in with the #4 national ranking and South Carolina was ranked 17th. In addition, two of the nation's best athletes, South Carolina's George Rogers and Pitt's Hugh Green, were showcased. Rogers, who rushed for 113 yards, had won the Heisman Trophy while Green, who recorded five tackles, was honored as the nation's finest lineman with the Outland Trophy.

An unusually cold evening with temperatures in the 40s and 15 mph winds greeted the teams and South Carolina didn't react to the adverse conditions from the word go. Rogers broke open for a nice seven-yard gain on the first play, but fumbled with the Panthers recovering on the South Carolina 29 yard line. Seven plays and four minutes later Pitt scored to take a 7-0 lead, a lead they would not relinquish.

South Carolina finally got on the scoreboard before the half on a 39-yard Eddie Leopard field goal. At the half Pittsburgh led 17-3 and led 34-3 by the end of the third quarter as turnovers and an inability to move the ball plagued the Gamecocks.

Pat Bowen picked off a pass and returned it 31 yards to the 14-yard line with 3:34 left to play in the game. Quarterback Gordon Beckham then connected with Tim Gillespie for South Carolina's lone touchdown.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. —The South Carolina Gamecocks fell short in a 24-14 loss to Missouri in the third annual Hall of Fame Bowl.

South Carolina took the opening kickoff and behind the running of George Rogers and the passing and catching of Garry Harper and Zion McKinney, scored a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Led by All-Big Eight quarterback Phil Bradley, the Tigers' responded with a 22-yard field goal.

Percey Reeves was hit and fumbled on the ensuing kickoff with the Tigers recovering on the 28. Bradley hit Newman with a scoring strike eight seconds later and USC was never to lead again.

Missouri took over again and moved the ball 30 yards to go up 17-6 before halftime. The Gamecocks cut the deficit to 17-14, but MU answered for the final points.

Bradley was named the game's MVP while Rogers was tabbed as the Offensive Player of the Game after rushing for 133 yards on 25 carries.

ORLANDO, FLA.—Despite a brilliant individual effort by Jeff Grantz, South Carolina lost to Miami (Ohio), 20-7. Grantz passed for 228 yards, hitting on 18-of-29 passes.

South Carolina took the opening kickoff and marched down the field on a well directed attack by Grantz only to miss a 26-yard field goal.

A short punt set Miami up for its initial score, coming on a five-yard run by Carpenter after a 42-yard, seven-play drive. Carpenter scored on another run just prior to the half to give Miami a 14-0 lead and they ran that to 17-0 early in the third quarter.

Grantz's passing enabled Carolina to finally get on the scoreboard late in the third quarter. He passed for 60 yards during the 13-play, 73-yard drive. The score came on a three-yard Tom Amrein dive.

ATLANTA, GA.—South Carolina's first bowl game in 24 years was a defensive battle with West Virginia posting a 14-3 win in the Peach Bowl.

West Virginia scored on its first possession of the game. The Mountaineers marched 66 yards in 10 plays capped by Gresham's 10-yard run to go up 7-0.

Carolina threatened to score late in the first half. Tommy Suggs passed the team down the field and had a first-and-goal at the West Virginia 10 before a fumble thwarted the drive.

But a West Virginia fumble of a punt set up a score just before the half and place kicker Bill DuPre booted through a 37-yard kick to get on the board.

After a scoreless third quarter, Carolina mounted one serious drive that was stalled by a pass interception. West Virginia scored with 23 seconds left in the game, thanks to another pass interception.

Williams rushed for 208 yards on 35 tries to account to lead WVU.

1946 Gator Bowl
Wake Forest 26, Carolina 14

January 1, 1946

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Despite a record-breaking 90-yard pass interception return for a touchdown, the South Carolina Gamecocks fell to old nemesis Wake Forest, 26-14 in the inaugural Gator Bowl.

This was the first bowl outing for the Gamecocks and the first and last season for coach Johnnie McMillan. He was filling in for coach Rex Enright who was completing his military obligation. Enright had a lot to do with the Game-cocks receiving the bid as he was stationed in the Jacksonville area.

The game was a rematch of sorts since weeks before Carolina and Wake Forest had played to a 13-13 deadlock. But playing in 55 degree weather before a near capacity crowd did not serve well.

Wake Forest jumped off to an early 6-0 first-quarter lead on a three-yard run by Nick Sacrinty. But the Gamecocks used the one-yard burst by Bobby Giles and a Dutch Brembs extra point to grab a 7-6 half time lead.

Wake Forest regained the lead with a Dick Brinkley run and the kick was blocked to lead, 12-7. Brinkley scored another touchdown early in the fourth quarter and added a 25-yard Bob Smathers run to blow to a 26-7 lead.

The only joy left for South Carolina in its first bowl appearance was the record-setting return by Brembs.

Information

◆ The University of South Carolina's Columbia campus has 324 degree programs through its 14 degree-granting colleges and schools.

◆ The South Carolina Honors College is ranked the nation's best public university honors college based on honors college factors by the guidebook, "A Review of Fifty Public University Honors Programs."

◆ The Moore School of Business undergraduate and MBA international business programs were ranked No. 1 by U.S. News & World Report in 2015.

◆ As South Carolina's flagship university, USC has more nationally-ranked programs than any other school in the state. In fact, U.S. News alone ranks 47 of USC's academic programs as among the best in the nation.

◆ Students at the University of South Carolina have earned 665 national fellowships and scholarships valued at $19.6 million since 1994. In 2013-14 alone, 52 students earned more than $2.1 million for academic study.

◆ University of South Carolina faculty generated $230 million in funding for research, training and outreach programs in fiscal year 2014.

◆ USC is ranked in the top-five percent of U.S. public universities in the number of national awards its faculty have received.

◆ The new Darla Moore School of Business building is the front door of the University's research district and a hub for creativity, research and entrepreneurial activity.

◆ USC has partnered with IBM and Fluor Corporation to open the Center for Applied Innovation on the Columbia campus. The center promises to reshape how technology is used in higher education.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

In 2001, the University celebrated the bicentennial of its charter, but 2005 also marked a watershed anniversary: 200 years since the first classes began at South Carolina College, as it was then known. Carolina has endured the Civil War and Reconstruction, closings, and name changes. Permanently chartered in 1906 as the University of South Carolina, it grew throughout the 20th century and today is building its reputation as a cutting-edge research institution.

◆ Twelve USC students received Fulbright grants in 2012 for research, study or teaching abroad, and the Chronicle of Higher Education named USC a "Top Producer of U.S. Fulbright Students." Another six students were awarded National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships.

◆ The National Academy of Inventors has named USC as a leading generator of patents, putting USC in the top one percent worldwide.

◆ USC has been recognized by both Kiplinger's "Best Values in Public Colleges" and Princeton Review's "Best Value Colleges."

◆ USC is one of only 40 public universities to receive the Carnegie Foundation's top-tier research designation and community engagement designation and is the only university in South Carolina with the Carnegie top-tier designation for "very high research activity."

◆ USC is recognized as a national model for a better student experience, based on its pioneering first-year experience program and other initiatives that give students more flexible and accelerated paths to graduation.

Dr. Harris Pastides, University President

Harris Pastides began his presidency at the University of South Carolina on Aug. 1, 2008. Just a few months later, the Great Recession began. Strong in the face of adversity, Pastides promised to accelerate USC's momentum as a world-class university. He has kept that promise. Today, seven years later, USC has experienced remarkable growth and positive change.

USC Columbia's freshman classes have grown continuously while posting the highest average SAT scores in university history. USC's Honors College has been named the No. 1 public honors college in the nation, and the Palmetto State's only Carnegie top-tier university is also home to top programs in areas such as undergraduate international business; public health; engineering; hospitality, retail and sport management. In addition, Carolina's Promise, USC's historic $1 billion capital campaign, concluded successfully on June 30, 2015.

An unwavering advocate for a superior student experience, Pastides encourages engagement beyond the classroom through leadership, service learning, international experience, internships and undergraduate research. Innovative programs like Palmetto College, On Your Time Graduation, Gamecock Gateway and Gamecock Guarantee are successfully providing greater access, flexibility and affordability to South Carolinians seeking a higher education degree. To date, 66,953 degrees have been awarded systemwide during Pastides' presidency. He often says, "Nothing makes me prouder than the students we enroll and those that we graduate."

In January 2015, during a time of great reform and transformation, Pastides was selected to serve as the chairman of the NCAA's Division I Board of Directors.

Prior to joining the university's faculty as dean of the Arnold School of Public Health, Pastides was a professor of epidemiology and chairman of the Department of Biostatistics and Epidemiology at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. He received his master's in public health and his Ph.D. in epidemiology from Yale University. President Pastides and the first lady, Patricia Moore-Pastides, live on USC's historic Horseshoe.

Dr. Valinda Littlefield, Faculty Representative

Dr. Valinda Littlefield begins her first season as the Athletics Faculty Representative at the University of South Carolina. Littlefield is an associate professor of history and African-American studies in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is a scholar of the history of women, African Americans and education with an emphasis on Southern African-American history from 1877 to the present.

Dr. Littlefield graduated Magna Cum Laude from North Carolina Central University in 1987 with a double major in political science and history. She earned her doctorate from the University of Illinois in 2003.

Dr. Littlefield joined the South Carolina faculty in 1999 after professional stops at each of her alma maters, North Carolina Central and Illinois.

While at USC, Dr. Littlefield has served on numerous university committees including co-chair of the Commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of Desegregation, QEP, University Women's Faculty Organization, and Faculty Committee on Instructional Development. She currently serves on the University Caroliniana Society Board and as a TRIO Ronald McNair Faculty Research Mentor. In addition, Littlefield serves on boards and executive committees of a number of local, state and national organizations such as One Columbia, the SC Academy of Authors, the SC African American Council for the Social Studies and the Southern Historical Association.

She is the co-editor with Marjorie Spruill and Joan Marie Johnson of a three-volume anthology, South Carolina Women: Their Lives and Times. She also served as subject editor of Education for the African American National Biography.

Dr. Littlefield is married to Dr. Daniel C. Littlefield, Carolina Professor of History.

Gaps in the presidential timeline indicate periods when the University was closed or under interim leadership or when its chief executive was known by a different title.

University of South Carolina Athletics Director Ray Tanner is in his fourth year guiding the fortunes of the Gamecocks' athletics programs. He was named to the position on July 13, 2012 after a long and highly successful career as Carolina's baseball coach. Tanner officially began his new duties on Aug. 2, 2012.

In his first season as AD (2012-13), Tanner experienced a wealth of success. The football team turned in its highest national ranking in school history at that time, while women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, equestrian, men's and women's swimming and diving, softball and baseball all reached the NCAA postseason.

His second year (2013-14) produced another stellar campaign in Gamecock Athletics history. The football team won 11 games for the third-straight season and finished as the nation's No. 4 ranked squad. Equestrian (second), women's golf (sixth), women's basketball (eighth) and men's golf (ninth) joined football as teams that were ranked in the Top-10 nationally in its final poll or national championship. Twelve of the Gamecocks' programs were ranked at one time during the season in its sport's Top-25. A total of 92 student-athletes graduated during the 2013-14 academic year. Additionally, Gamecock student-athletes performed more than 5,000 hours of community service.

More success followed in year three, led by a national championship in equestrian, a Final Four berth in women's basketball, and an Elite Eight appearance by the women's soccer team. South Carolina had 15 of its 21 programs ranked among the nation's Top-25 at one point, including seven in the Top-10. In the Spring 2015 semester, the department posted a combined 3.256 GPA, the second-highest on record. Ninety-four student-athletes graduated during the academic year, and student-athletes performed a record-setting 8,860 hours of community service.

A dedicated community leader whose charitable organization has made a difference in many South Carolina families, a three-time National Coach of the Year and Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Tanner completed 16 years as head coach at the University of South Carolina, establishing one of the premier programs in college baseball prior to being named AD. He led the Garnet & Black to two NCAA Division I Baseball Championships, a pair of national runner-up finishes, six College World Series appearances, three SEC championships, six SEC Eastern division titles, a SEC tournament crown and 13 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Under the direction of Tanner, South Carolina's postseason success from 2010-2012 is arguably the greatest run in collegiate baseball history. In the three-year span, the Gamecocks established NCAA records with 22 consecutive postseason wins and 12 consecutive wins in the College World Series. The Gamecocks won the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship in 2010 and 2011 with a national runner-up finish in 2012. South Carolina's 30-4 (.882) record over that three-year period in the NCAA Tournament is the fifth best three-year postseason record in NCAA history.

In addition, the 2012 CWS trip marked the sixth time in 11 years that South Carolina had reached Omaha. No Division I baseball team made more appearances than the Gamecocks over the 11-year span.

Tanner and the Gamecocks have created one of the top environments in college baseball at Carolina Stadium. After a successful run at Sarge Frye Field through 2008, the Gamecocks made the move to the new $36 million Carolina Stadium where college baseball has continued to grow. South Carolina's total attendance of 295,389 in the 2012 season was second highest in the nation. The average attendance of 7,574 also was a Carolina Stadium record, besting the previous mark of 7,431 in the 2011 season. The Gamecocks also set a record for sellouts in 2012 with 15 games at a capacity of 8,242 fans. In addition, South Carolina set a record for season tickets sold with a total of 5,580 sold in the preseason before the 2012 campaign.

For all of his accolades, Tanner's uniform No. 1 was retired and the street outside Carolina Stadium was renamed in his honor. He was also inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in May 2013.

The 2012 season was Tanner's 25th year as a collegiate head coach. He posted a 738-316 record at South Carolina with a .700 winning percentage, second highest all-time among SEC coaches. His career record was 1,133-489-3 for a winning percentage of .699. His final 12 teams featured 23 All-Americans.

Tanner gained valuable experience at an international level in his association with USA Baseball. He has served five stints with Red, White and Blue, including in 2003 as head coach for the USA National Baseball Team. At the helm of some of the top freshmen and sophomores in the country, Tanner's club finished with a 27-2 record, the best record for a U.S. National Team (.931 winning percentage) and won a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games. He was named the U.S. National Coach of the Year for his work that season. Prior to his head coaching stint, Tanner served as an auxiliary coach under Tommy Lasorda for the 2000 Olympic Team that won a gold medal at the XXVII Olympiad in Sydney, Australia. He was also an assistant under former LSU coach Skip Bertman with the 1995 and 1996 USA teams that culminated in a bronze medal win at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Ga. Tanner also served alongside former Mississippi State coach Ron Polk on Bertman's staff. Tanner's first stint with USA Baseball came as an assistant coach to the national team in the summer of 1993.

Tanner was named the South Carolina head coach June 14, 1996, after nine successful seasons at North Carolina State. At NC State, Tanner led his alma mater to seven appearances in the NCAA postseason tournament and ranked second for most wins in school history. He was the 1990 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year and in 1993 was named Atlantic Region Coach of the Year when his team won 49 games.

Tanner was affiliated with the Wolfpack baseball program for more than 20 years. He came to the Raleigh campus in the fall of 1976 as a player following an outstanding career at South Johnston High School in Four Oaks, N.C. A four-year starter, he earned All-ACC honors his senior season and still ranks among the Wolfpack's all-time leaders in several categories.

Following his playing career, Tanner served as an assistant for NC State coach Sam Esposito, overseeing recruiting efforts and coaching third base. During his tenure as an assistant, the Wolfpack reached the NCAA Tournament twice. He had additional duties as assistant to the athletics director and as assistant athletics director in charge of game operations.

After Esposito's retirement, Tanner was named head coach at the age of 28 by the legendary late Jim Valvano, becoming one of the youngest head baseball coaches in the nation.

Tanner has a bachelor's degree in recreational administration from NC State (1980) and a master's of public affairs, public administration (1983).

Born Donald Ray Tanner, Jr., March 25, 1958, in Smithfield, N.C., Tanner grew up in Benson, N.C. He is married to the former Karen Donald, a native of Charleston, S.C. A University of South Carolina graduate, she was formerly head women's athletic trainer at NC State. During the summer of 1997 she served as trainer for the Charlotte Sting in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA). She is the former director of athletics and director of sports medicine at Columbia College.

The Tanners have two daughters, Bridgette Grace ("Gracie") and Margaret Pearl ("Maggie") and one son, Joseph Luke ("Luke").

Attention Boosters

The University of South Carolina Office of Compliance Services is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates everyone about the importance of adhering to NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules. We strive to create a "compliance conscience" within the University and throughout the community.

The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics and furthers the mission of the University of South Carolina. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules.

What is Compliance?

At South Carolina, the Office of Compliance Services works within the department of athletics and the University to ensure South Carolina's compliance with all applicable rules. In doing so, the compliance staff is charged with the following tasks:

• Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospects, student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules;

• Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with these rules. These systems are designed to monitor rules pertaining to recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards, extra benefits, ethical conduct, amateurism, agents, employment, occasional meals, and the playing and practice seasons for each sport; and

• Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules to the appropriate governing authority.

Are You a Booster?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

• Been a member of a booster organization that supports University of South Carolina athletics;

• Made any financial contributions to any area the University of South Carolina;

• Made any annual or lifetime membership commitment to a booster organization;

• Been involved with the recruitment of a prospect;

• Provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends;

• Been involved in promoting South Carolina's athletic program;

• Provided or helped to arrange employment for student-athletes;

• Been a season ticket holder.

Prospective Student-Athletes

A prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has:

• Started classes for the ninth grade, or

• Ever received any financial assistance or other benefit prospective students do not generally receive.

An individual remains a prospect until one of the following occurs (whichever is earlier):

• The individual officially registers and enrolls in a minimum full-time program of studies and attends classes in any term (including summer) of a four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year.

• The individual participates in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term.

Remember a prospect remains a prospect even after signing a National Letter of Intent with the University of South Carolina.

THE RICE ATHLETICS CENTER

Extra Benefits

A recruiting inducement or extra benefit is any special arrangement by a University of South Carolina employee or booster to provide a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

• Free or reduced cost services, rentals, or purchases of any type (e.g., meals, drinks, clothing, laundry, haircuts, legal fees, tattoos, car repairs, free upgrades on products or services, etc.)

• Gifts of any kind, including special occasions (birthdays, holidays, graduation, etc.)

• VIP access to bars, clubs, events, etc.

• Free or reduced cost housing for any length of time

• Loans (including co-signing)

• Cash or like items

• Use of an automobile or transportation

• An employment arrangement for a prospect or student-athlete's relatives

• Entertainment

• Use of your telephone or credit card

• Providing a meal in your home

• Academic assistance of any kind (e.g., tutoring, editing papers/projects, assistance in completing classwork, use of computer, etc.)

• Any tangible items, including merchandise

What are the Consequences?

South Carolina is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends, South Carolina may be subject to penalties, even if the student-athlete has completed his or her eligibility. The prospect or student-athlete who accepts an impermissible benefit jeopardizes his or her eligibility for intercollegiate competition. A booster who provides an impermissible benefit may be disassociated from the University's athletics program. Disassociation results in a loss of all benefits or privileges offered by the department of athletics and may involve other penalties as appropriate.

Selected players are available around the press conference. Defensive players/assistant coaches are available after practice. All requests must be in to Steve Fink by 11 a.m.	Gamecock offensive players/assistant coaches are available after practice. All requests must be in to Steve Fink by 11 a.m. Coach Spurrier is on the SEC conference call at 11:10 a.m. ET.	Co-defensive coordinator Jon Hoke is available coming off the practice field. There is no player availability. Coach Spurrier's weekly radio show is from 7-8 p.m. ET.	Head coach Steve Spurrier and a co-defensive coordinator is available for network television only. There is no player availability.	Coach Spurrier, Coach Hoke and requested players will be available in Media Interview Room following the game. The Gamecocks' locker room is closed to the media.

The University of South Carolina understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. Our goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the South Carolina Athletics Media Relations staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the media relations department.

Media Day

South Carolina's annual Football Media Day is set for Monday, August 3. Photos are tentatively scheduled to be taken on the field beginning at 1 p.m. No interviews will be allowed on the field. Head Coach Steve Spurrier will hold a press conference beginning at approximately 1:40 p.m. in the Media Interview Room, located under the west stands at Williams-Brice Stadium. Requested student-athletes and assistant coaches will be available on the second floor of the Crews Building following Coach Spurrier's press conference until 4 p.m.

Press Credentials

Working press credentials for the 2015 South Carolina home football games must be requested online through www.sportssystems.com/clients/seccredentials. Credential requests must come from the sports editors and the sports directors only.

It is not always possible to accommodate all requests. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential without prior approval.

Any questions or concerns can be directed to Associate Media Relations Director Diana Koval at 803-777-7977 or by email at dkoval@mailbox.sc.edu. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 7. Requests for single games should be made no later then seven (7) days prior to game day and will be approved the week of the game. Once approved, all credentials must be picked up on game day at Media Will Call, located on the west side of the stadium by the press elevators. Media Will Call will open three (3) hours prior to kick-off. A photo ID must be presented to receive the press credential.

Note: Credentials will be considered only for those media members on specific assignment for a specific media outlet that meets the criteria below. Credentials are non-transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The granting and number of credentials for daily NEWSPAPERS will based on the newspaper's circulation on a space available basis.

Those newspapers publishing more than twice a week, but less than six, will have priority after those in the daily newspaper category.

WEBSITES that meet one of the following criteria will be issued a maximum of three (3) season approved press box credentials, which includes the videographer, and two (2) season field passes to be used for still photography.

1. Is the official website of the home or visiting school or its conference;

2. Is the official online service of a national over-the-air or cable television network;

3. Has a "national affiliate agreement" with or is an official licensed site of a national or local news gathering organization and has at least one full-time employee dedicated to writing for the site; or

4. Is a local news gathering organization that has at least two full-time employees and is owned by a media company with multiple assets.

Websites that are an extension of a non-digital local media outlet (newspaper, radio, television) will not be issued credentials independent of their originating organization.

Sport-specific websites with more than two full-time writers will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

No credentials will be issued to any website that is not deemed by University of South Carolina Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations Steve Fink to have adequate editorial oversight. Credentials will not be approved to anyone who writes or posts under an alias.

TELEVISION stations will be issued a maximum of two (2) season approved press box credentials. However, press box seating is not guaranteed for both credentials. Television stations will receive a maximum of two (2) field passes.

Local RADIO stations will be granted one (1) season approved press box credential for a full-time host of a daily sports show. In addition, one (1) press box credential will be distributed per station for the sports director. Field passes will not be issued to radio stations. Non-daily local radio sports shows and out-of-market radio stations that have a daily sports show will be granted a maximum one (1) credential on a game-by-game space available basis.

STUDENT MEDIA outlets for the home and visiting schools will be issued credentials in accordance with the policy for their format (newspaper, website, radio, television). To be considered student media, the outlet must be sanctioned as such by the university, have full-time university staff overseeing the training of staff or be governed by a university-appointed board, and receive some portion of its funding from student fees.

PHOTO WIRE SERVICES that distribute nationally and retain all rights for sale and usage of any image taken at the event will be issued one (1) season field pass with an option for a second on a game-by-game, space-available basis. Any wire service that sells/shares its images for non-editorial uses must provide the University of South Carolina Athletics Media Relations department with a statement indicating how it ensures that non-editorial clients use its images within NCAA regulations.

All other credential requests, including weekly newspapers, magazines, specialty publications, etc. will be considered on a game-by-game and case-by-case basis at the discretion of Steve Fink, Assistant AD/Media Relations. All credential policies are subject to change, and final approval of all credentials is at the discretion of the Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Non-affiliated bloggers and freelance photographers will not be credentialed.

Media outlets that cover the visiting school will be considered following consultation with that school's athletics media relations department.

Sideline Policy

The University of South Carolina adheres to the NCAA and SEC guidelines regarding media representatives on the sidelines:

1. Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets prior to the game and photo identification must be provided.

2. Photographers must check in at Media Will Call on the west side of the stadium adjacent to the press elevator. Those photographers who will work on the sidelines will be issued a vest. This vest must be worn at all times to gain access to the sidelines. No other type of photo or media credential will allow an individual access to the sidelines during the game. The vest must be returned to the South Carolina media relations staff following the game.

3. Only working photographers/videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field.

4. Working photographers/videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the 25-yard lines). All other media representatives on the field (announcers, reporters, etc.) must stand behind the designated area. This will ensure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate space to do their work. No photographer will be allowed to shoot from either end zone.

5. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo work room, located on the ground level of Williams-Brice Stadium. Wired and wireless internet are available. While security in this area is provided, the University of South Carolina is not responsible for the loss of any items.

6. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer/videographer in the bench area for all sports is strictly prohibited. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in uniform and a maximum of 60 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 60 individuals not in uniform shall wear special identification." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box."

The SEC also prohibits photographers/videographers from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area. The bench area at Williams-Brice Stadium is defined by the area between the 25-yard lines and covered with a white tarp.

7. Photographers and videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.

SEC Internet Real Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(b) Videotape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy of detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Championship. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Press Box

South Carolina's press box has seats for 144 members of the media, along with television and radio booths, coaches' booths and public address and stadium operations/security booths. Located just above the press level is the photo deck. All members of the media covering the game are invited to a catered meal, which is served beginning two hours prior to kickoff.

Wireless internet is available for use. Wired outlets for photographers and videographers are available in the back of the press box. The photo work room, located on the ground level of Williams-Brice Stadium, also has wired and wireless internet access.

Any media outlet that wishes to install its own telephone should contact South Carolina Telephone Communications at (803) 777-1800.

The Athletics Media Relations department supplies quarterly play-by-plays and quickie stats, halftime statistics, final team and individual statistics and coaches and players quotes. An inside public address announcer also keeps the media informed of play-by-play, records and game notes.

The Carolina press box is for the working media only. In accordance with the Football Writers Association of America, no cheering will be allowed.

In-Game Statistics

Media should utilize StatBroadcast for all the latest live statistical information during games. Visit gamecocks.statbroadcast.com for live scoring of all home football games. The password will be provided on game day.

Postgame Interviews

The press box elevator will be held at press level midway through the fourth quarter for anyone attending postgame press conferences. South Carolina's postgame press conferences take place in the Media Interview Room, located underneath the stands on the west side of Williams-Brice Stadium. The visitors' locker room and postgame interview room are located under the west stands at the north end. The Gamecock locker room will be closed following the game. Coach Spurrier will be available in the postgame interview room approximately 10 minutes after the game. Selected student-athletes will also be brought to the interview room following the cool-down period. Admittance to postgame interviews is by credential only. The South Carolina press conference will be televised live to the press box. No interviews, other than those conducted by the rightsholders, may be conducted on the field following the game.

Satellite Truck Parking

Limited parking is available for TV station live/satellite trucks, and those vehicles will need to be approved prior to game day. Please contact Diana Koval at least three days prior to the game to schedule live/satellite truck parking.

Media Parking

Media parking is available in the Key Road parking lot, located southeast of Williams-Brice Stadium. Please contact Associate Media Relations Director Diana Koval at 803-777-7977 or by email at dkoval@mailbox.sc.edu for any parking needs. Parking passes will be distributed in advance via the method indicated on the credential application.

Visiting Radio

The visitor's radio network must be designated by the opponent's athletic director. Booth space will be assigned by Steve Fink, Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations. Any non-designated stations will be admitted on a space-available basis. The Gamecock Sports Network will be handled by IMG College. Stations requesting information regarding the network should contact: Liz McMillan, Executive Director, IMG College, (803) 777-8254.

Football Video Services

For information on receiving mid-week press conference videos, post-game press conference videos, and other football related footage, please contact Assistant Media Relations Director Matt Freed at mfreed@mailbox.sc.edu or Multimedia Coordinator Cory Burkarth at burkarth@mailbox.sc.edu. Login information to the department's media FTP site will be provided. Please credit GamecocksOnline when using footage from the FTP site.

Live Broadcasts

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, including social media apps, any live event without the consent of the University of South Carolina Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event and will be communicated in the media advisory for the event. No television live shots, with the exception of the rightsholder, may take place inside the stadium beginning 30 minutes prior to kickoff until the broadcast is concluded.

Audio/Video Event Archiving

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to archive audio or video Event content that exceeds five (5) minutes in length. Events are defined as varsity contests, press conferences and any other group media availability. Archiving may not begin until the conclusion of the entire event. WNKT-FM is the only radio station that can carry press conferences live and/or archived in their entirety.

Non-Rightsholder Radio Appearances

South Carolina coaches will be limited to one appearance from one member of a sport's coaching staff per week on any radio station or any radio show that is aired as part of a state-wide, regional or national network in the Columbia market. The length of the interview should be no more than one segment, defined as "commercial-break to commercial-break." In addition, the same member of a sport's coaching staff or administrator cannot make appearances in consecutive weeks on the same radio station. Media outlets in which the institution or the SEC is contractually affiliated is exempt from this language. Exceptions can be made in the occurrence of a major "breaking news" event. Please work through the team's media relations contact to help coordinate any request.

Game Day Media Availability

No University of South Carolina Athletics staff member may appear live on a non-rightsholder radio show on the same day as any USC contractual programming, including live game action or coaches' call-in shows, without prior consent of Athletics Media Relations.

Radio/TV Appearances

South Carolina student-athletes may not participate in any live radio or television show other than during a regularly scheduled newscast and for no longer than four minutes, post-game interview times, conference media days and structured media opportunities during NCAA championships, without the consent of the South Carolina Athletics Media Relations department. This policy is in effect year-round and does not apply to institutional networks. It does apply to internet chat rooms that are sponsored by a media outlet for the sole purpose of conducting Q&A sessions with the viewing public concerning the student-athlete's athletic career.

SEC Weekly Teleconference

The Southeastern Conference hosts a weekly press teleconference each Wednesday from August 26 to November 25. The teleconference features the head coach from each team every week. Each coach issues an opening statement followed by questions from the media for seven minutes. To participate, please contact either the SEC Media Relations office at (205) 458-3010 for the telephone number and passcode.

South Carolina Student-Athlete Interview Policy

All interviews must be coordinated through the Athletics Media Relations department. This allows the staff to arrange the interview when it best suits the student-athlete's and the reporter's schedules. Please contact the Media Relations department in advance to make your interview requests. Media are not permitted to contact student-athletes on their own at any time.

All interviews will take place at the practice fields, in the media room underneath the west stands at Williams-Brice Stadium or in the Media Relations office. No interviews will take place prior to practice on the practice fields.

Residence hall, apartment or cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be provided to the media. Should you need to conduct a telephone interview with a student-athlete, a call will be placed to you from the student-athlete at a mutually agreeable time.

Gamecock Sports Marketing, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletics Department and the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, IMG College, is the originating medium for radio coverage of the South Carolina Gamecocks.

This begins the eighth year of a nine-year, $50 million contract between the University and IMG College that runs through 2017. 2015 also marks the third year of a four-year extension with Cumulus Media for WNKT-FM (107.5 The Game) to continue as the official flagship station of Gamecock Athletics through 2017.

Gamecock Sports Marketing is responsible for the overall management of the athletics program's corporate partnership effort, which includes producing, selling and distributing the Gamecock Radio Network (live play-by-play and call-in shows) and coaches television shows, print advertising in various athletics department publications, and selected signage in university athletic facilities.

The Gamecock Sports Network from IMG College counts two dozen affiliate stations for the 2015-16 season. For Sirius/XM subscribers, follow the Gamecock Radio Twitter page for weekly updates on channel information for Gamecock broadcasts.

Todd Ellis, the all-time leading passer in Gamecock history, begins his 24th season with the network and his 13th as the play-by-play voice of Carolina football. Ellis previously served as sideline reporter for the radio network and as a color analyst and play-by-play announcer for Comcast Sports Southeast for Gamecock telecasts. Ellis has also hosted the coaches television show and served on CBS's bowl game radio coverage. He hosts the Steve Spurrier Television Show and Carolina Calls with Steve Spurrier, the Head Ball Coach's weekly radio call-in show. Ellis set more than 20 school passing marks during his career (1986-89) while throwing for 9,953 yards.

Tommy Suggs, a former standout Gamecock quarterback, is back for his 42nd year as color analyst for the radio network. Suggs played for Carolina from 1968-70 and is regarded as one of the school's all-time premier signal-callers. He led the Gamecocks to the 1969 ACC championship and Peach Bowl berth and was named MVP of the 1970 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. Suggs was inducted into the University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989 and is also a member of the state of South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2012, friends and colleagues of Tommy and Jane Suggs established the Tommy Suggs Endowed Quarterback Scholarship to honor his long-time commitment to the University and Gamecock Athletics. The scholarship is awarded to a quarterback each year and was the first endowed scholarship for the football program.

Former South Carolina and NFL defensive lineman Langston Moore joined the Gamecock IMG Sports Network as sideline reporter in 2012. Moore was a member of the Carolina football team from 1999-2002 before embarking on an NFL career that included stints in Cincinnati (2003-04), Arizona (2005-06), and Detroit (2007-08). He was originally a sixth round pick by the Bengals in the 2003 NFL Draft. He has been a volunteer for the Frye Foundation and USAA Cares, as well as Home Town Huddle during his playing and post-NFL career.

Liz McMillan serves as the Executive Director of Gamecock IMG Sports Marketing in Columbia. Kyle Draper is in his second year as the General Manager. Brent Johnson serves as the Network Host, Carroll Senn is the broadcast engineer, David Spence is the spotter and Doug Adams is the statisician. Rachel Senn assists with production. Andy Demetra, the voice of Carolina basketball and baseball, works on the pre- and post-game shows.

The Steve Spurrier Television Show airs at 11:30 a.m. on Sundays on SportSouth and then later that night and one other time during the week.

SEC Network

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network, which launched in August 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform air SEC content 24/7 including more than 1,000 events in its first year.

The network will televise approximately 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming will also include studio shows, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, signing day and pro days coverage. Hundreds of additional live events from various sports are offered exclusively on the digital platform. The network and its digital extensions will connect with each SEC institution and create opportunities for each school to produce and develop content.

As part of the agreement, ESPN oversees the SEC's official Corporate Sponsor Program. In addition, ESPN and the SEC also agreed to extend their existing media rights agreement through 2034. ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. ESPN's existing networks present more than 1,600 hours of SEC action each year. The new network will focus exclusively on the SEC and add another outlet to deliver sports fans more SEC content than ever.

Gamecock Television History

South Carolina football has appeared on television many times, dating back to a local telecast of a game against Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5, 1949. The first Gamecock home game to be televised was against the University of North Carolina in Carolina (now Williams-Brice) Stadium, Nov. 7, 1953.

Williams-Brice Stadium, formerly Carolina Stadium, was first constructed in 1934 by the Works Progress Administration (WPA). Then, it seated 17,600 Gamecock fans. It has undergone a number of expansions and revisions over the years, with the largest prior to the 1982 expansion coming in 1971-1972. A bequest from the estate of Mrs. Martha Williams-Brice helped boost the capacity then from slightly more than 43,000 to greater than 54,000.

Mrs. Williams-Brice's husband, Thomas H. Brice, was a Gamecock football letterman from 1922-24, and her family operated the Williams Furniture Company in Sumter. She left a substantial inheritance from the furniture fortune to her nephews, Thomas W. and Philip L. Edwards, much of which they passed on to the University of South Carolina. That included a bequest for the stadium project.

The name was officially changed from Carolina Stadium to Williams-Brice Stadium in dedication ceremonies during the Sept. 9, 1972 opener with Virginia.

Added in 2012 was a $6.5 million state-of-the-art videoboard that sits above the north stands. It measures 36' x 124'.

In 2015, the $14.5 million Springs Brooks Plaza transformed the entire circumference of Williams-Brice Stadium into an aesthetically pleasing walkway with the look and feel similar to the majestic Gamecock Park.

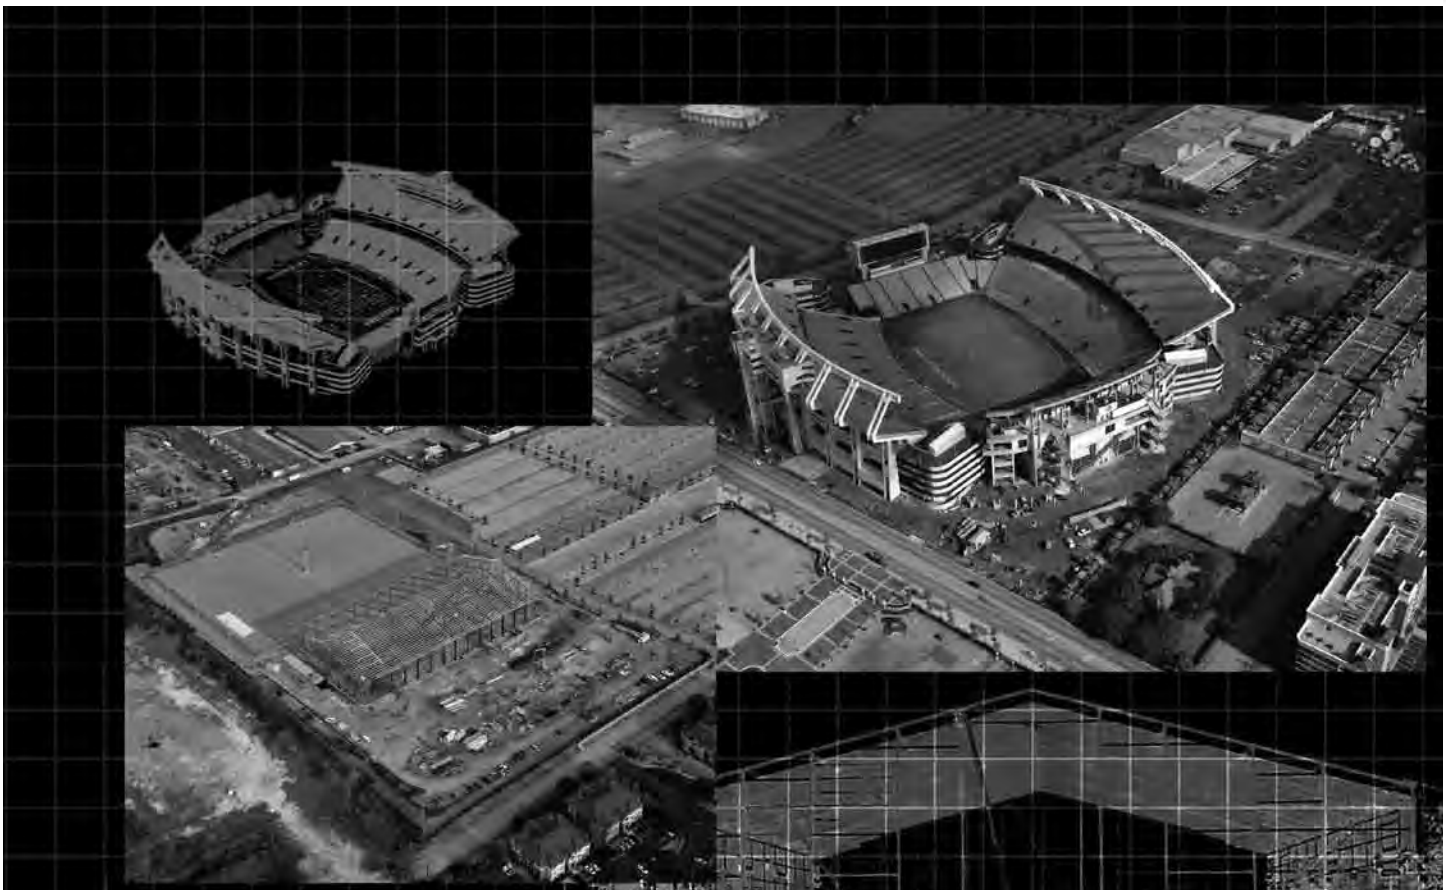
Williams-Brice Stadium Facts

- First game as Carolina Stadium: Oct. 6, 1934 (South Carolina 22, VMI 6)
- Dedicated as Williams-Brice Stadium: Sept. 9, 1972 (Virginia 24, South Carolina 16)
- Capacity: 80,250
- Stadium Record: 281-181-14 (.605)
- When the Gamecocks take the field on gameday, Williams-Brice Stadium is packed with 80,000+ screaming Gamecock fans, making it more populated than all but three cities in the state of South Carolina.
- Williams-Brice Stadium is recognized as one of the finest facilities in all of college football. Carolina annually ranks among the nation's leaders in attendance, and Gamecock fans are regarded as some of the most loyal in the country.
- South Carolina established a school record for football season tickets sold in 2005, selling 62,604 season tickets, surpassing the previous mark of 62,103 set in 2002. The numbers do not include student tickets and tickets contractually obligated to visiting teams.



BUILDING CAROLINA

A COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

The University of South Carolina has invested more than $80 million in and around Williams-Brice Stadium in recent years as the program has dramatically improved under head coach Steve Spurrier.

SPRINGS BROOKS PLAZA

The $14.5 million Springs Brooks Plaza will transform the entire circumference of Williams-Brice Stadium into an aesthetically pleasing walkway with the look and feel similar to the majestic Gamecock Park. The plaza will be lined with beautiful garnet-colored oak trees, and enclosed with brick and wrought iron fencing, making arriving at Williams-Brice a breath-taking event for fans of all ages.

PRACTICE FACILITY

Located on the west end of Gamecock Park, the spectacular $14.5 million Football Indoor Practice Facility will have a regulation 100-yard turf football field and include restrooms, athletic training rooms and film towers. In addition, two outdoor, lighted grass fields have been constructed adjacent to the indoor facility at a cost of $3 million.

Nickname: The Fighting Gamecocks

The University of South Carolina is the only major college athletic program in the country that uses "Fighting Gamecocks" as its official nickname and mascot. The University's athletic teams have been known as Gamecocks for over 100 years.

At the turn of the 20th century, after struggling for more than decade under numerous nicknames, the school's football team was the impetus of the new moniker. In 1903, Columbia's morning newspaper, The State, shortened the name to one word and Carolina teams have been Gamecocks ever since.

Those early teams must have been a feisty and spirited group. A gamecock, of course, is a fighting rooster known for its spirit and courage. A cock fight, which was a popular sport throughout the United States in the 19th century, would last until the death of one of the combatants. Cock fighting has been outlawed by most states for humanitarian reasons, but it is still held surreptitiously in many areas.

The State of South Carolina has long been closely connected with the breeding and training of fighting gamecocks. General Thomas Sumter, famed guerrilla fighter of the Revolutionary War, was known as "The Fighting Gamecock."

The South Carolina Mascot

The Gamecock mascot, "Cocky," is a familiar sight at a variety of South Carolina athletic events. He appears at all home and road football and basketball games, and at home baseball games. In addition he can be found frequenting other Olympic sports events on the Columbia campus.

Cocky was chosen National Mascot of the Year in 1986, 1994, and again in 2004 and is recognized as one of the most colorful mascots in collegiate athletics.

In 1981, and 1982, the Gamecocks participated in the College Baseball World Series and "Cocky" was selected both years as the official mascot of the CWS.

"2001"

The University of South Carolina Gamecocks feature perhaps the most unique and electrifying pregame entry in all of college football. In fact, Sporting News rated USC's "2001" as the most exciting pregame entry in all of college football. As the minutes wind down on the game clock prior to the opening kickoff, the Gamecocks leave the locker room following final pregame instruction from their coaching staff and assemble in the tunnel in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium. Then, as the crowd of more than 80,000 begins its roar of anticipation, the first notes of the theme song from "2001-A Space Odyssey" blare over the stadium sound system. As the music continues, the enthusiasm of the crowd is feverish. Finally, at just the exact moment, in perfect coordination with the music, the Gamecocks hit the field running, and the stadium goes wild.

Gamecock Walk

Approximately two hours and 20 minutes prior to every home game, the South Carolina team buses drop the players off on the Garnet Way in Gamecock Park. Through a throng of Gamecock fans and well-wishers along with the Carolina Marching Band, the team walks on the Garnet Way, crosses Bluff Road and the stadium tarmac and heads to the locker room, located in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium, to prepare for the game ahead.

School Colors

Garnet and Black were adopted near the turn of the century as the official colors of the University of South Carolina athletic teams. The colors are the dominant ones on the gamecock, which is the University's official mascot for its athletic teams.

The Cockaboose Railroad

What is perhaps the most unique form of tailgating and featured throughout the years in numerous magazines and television shows, the Cockaboose Railroad has made its way to Columbia and University of South Carolina football. Twenty-two cabooses line a railroad track just outside of Williams-Brice Stadium - but these rail cars don't move and they certainly aren't something you would see passing by on the rear end of a train.

Several years ago, a local businessman and his wife finally had enough of the railroad tracks which sit just a stone's throw from the south side of the stadium. In 1990, the beautifully-designed Cockaboose Railroad began catering to the serious Gamecock tailgater with amenities never before associated with in tailgating: running water, cable television, air conditioning, and heating, and a living room highlight each and every Cockaboose.

The Carolina Cockabooses are stationary and many are wired with closed-circuit television to watch Gamecock away games if making the trip is not feasible.

The Cockaboose Railroad - it's different, it's unique, and it's exciting; and there's nothing else like it in the nation.

Alma Mater: "We Hail Thee Carolina"

We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise; With loyal devotion, remembering the days; When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Since pilgrims of learning, we entered thy walls; And found dearest comrades in thy classic halls; We've honored and loved thee as sons faithfully: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Generations of sons have rejoiced to proclaim; Thy watchword of service, thy beauty and fame; For ages to come shall their rallying cry be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fair shrine of high honor and truth, thou shalt still; Blaze forth as a beacon, thy mission fulfill; And crowned by all hearts in a new jubilee: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fight Song: "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way"

Hey, Let's give a cheer, Carolina is here, The Fighting Gamecocks lead the way. Who gives a care, If the going gets tough, And when it is rough, that's when the 'Cocks get going. Hail to our colors of garnet and black, In Carolina pride have we. So, Go Gamecocks Go - FIGHT! Drive for the goal - FIGHT! USC will win today - GO COCKS! So, let's give a cheer, Carolina is here. The Fighting Gamecocks All The Way!

SEC Mission Statement

GREG SANKEY
Commissioner

"The purpose of the SEC is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The SEC

• Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

• The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports.

• In the fall of 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became the 13th and 14th members of the Southeastern Conference. It marked the first expansion for the SEC since 1991 and the second-ever increase for the league since its founding in 1933.

National Champions since 1998

The SEC has captured the National Championship in seven of the last nine seasons. Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with nine national champions. Tennessee won the BCS's first national title in 1998, LSU won the crown in 2003, Florida claimed the national championship in 2006 and 2008, LSU took the title in 2007, Alabama was crowned the National Champion in 2009 and again in 2011 and 2012, while Auburn took the top spot in 2010. The Big Ten, Big 12 and ACC have two BCS national titles followed by the Pac-12 and Big East with one each.

National Champions since 1992

Since the SEC expanded in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with 11. During that time, the SEC has had more teams (5) with national titles than any other conference.

SEC: Florida (1996, 2006, 2008), LSU (2003, 2007), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012), Auburn (2010)
Big 12: Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)
Big Ten: Ohio State (2002, 2014), Michigan (1997)
Pac-12: Southern California (2003, 2004)
ACC: Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013)
Big East: Miami, Fla. (2001)

SEC Topps in Fan Support

The Southeastern Conference has led the nation in total attendance in football every year since 1981. Since 1988, the SEC has led the nation in average attendance. Nearly 7.5 million fans witnessed first-hand, the excitement of SEC football in 2014. The average capacity of the 14 SEC stadiums during the last 10 years has been over 97 percent. Every year since 1988, the SEC has had at least four teams ranked in the top 10 in average attendance, including six of the top 10 in 2014.
